53 intent to seek nomination or election to a particular public office, except 54 that in the case of an exploratory committee established by a candidate 55 for purposes that include aiding or promoting the candidate's candidacy

59 candidate's declaration of intent to seek nomination or election to a 60 particular public office, (2) the candidate's endorsement at a convention, 61 caucus or town committee meeting, or (3) the candidate's filing of a 62 candidacy for nomination under section 9-400 or 9-405. The treasurer 63 shall also file a statement identifying all contributions received or 64 expenditures made by the exploratory committee since the previous 65 statement and the balance on hand or deficit, as the case may be. In the 66 event of a surplus, the treasurer shall, not later than the filing of the 67 statement, distribute the surplus to the candidate committee established 68 pursuant to said section, except that (A) in the case of a surplus of an 69 exploratory committee established by a candidate who intends to be a 70 participating candidate, as defined in section 9-703, in the Citizens'
71 Election Program, the treasurer may distribute to the candidate 72 committee only that portion of such surplus that is attributable to 73 contributions that meet the criteria for qualifying contributions for the 74 candidate committee under section 9-704 and shall distribute the

84 during any period in which the prohibitions in subsection (e) of section 85 9-610, as amended by this act, apply, and (ii) any remaining amount 86 shall be returned to all such lobbyists and political committees 87 established by or on behalf of lobbyists, on a prorated basis of

89 tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue
90 Code of 1986, or any subsequent corresponding internal revenue code
91 of the United States, as from time to time amended. If the candidate 92 decides not to seek nomination or election to any office, the treasurer 93 shall, [within] not later than fifteen days after such decision, comply 94 with the provisions of this subsection and distribute any surplus in the 95 manner provided by this section for political committees other than 96 those formed for ongoing political activities, except that if the surplus is 97 from an exploratory committee established by the State Treasurer, any 98 portion of the surplus that is received from a principal of an investment 99 services firm or a political committee established by such firm shall be 100 returned to such principal or committee on a prorated basis of 101 contribution. In the event of a deficit, the treasurer shall file a statement 102 thirty days after the decision or declaration with the proper authority 103 and, thereafter, on the seventh day of each month following if on the last 104 day of the previous month there was an increase or decrease in such 105 deficit in excess of five hundred dollars from that reported on the last 106 statement filed. The treasurer shall file supplemental statements until 107 the deficit is eliminated. If the exploratory committee does not have a 108 surplus or deficit, the statement filed after the candidate's declaration or 109 decision shall be the last required statement. If a candidate certifies on 110 the statement of organization for the exploratory committee pursuant to 111 subsection (c) of section 9-604 that the candidate will not be a candidate 112 for the office of state representative and subsequently establishes a 113 candidate committee for the office of state representative, the treasurer
114 of the candidate committee shall pay to the State Treasurer, for deposit
115 in the General Fund, an amount equal to the portion of any contribution 116 received by [said] such exploratory committee that exceeded two 117 hundred fifty dollars. As used in this subsection, "principal of an 118 investment services firm" has the same meaning [set forth] as provided 119 in subsection (e) of section 9-612 and "state office" [has the same 120 meaning set forth] and "municipal office" have the same meanings as

OLR Bill AnalysisHB 6320AN ACT PROHIBITING LOBBYIST CONTRIBUTIONS DURING A LEGISLATIVE SESSION TO LEGISLATORS OR STATE OFFICERS RUNNING FOR MUNICIPAL OFFICE.SUMMARY

This bill extends, to candidate or exploratory committees established by legislators or state officers who are candidates for municipal office, the sessional ban on contributions and solicitations by lobbyists and lobbyist political committees (known as PACs).

Specifically, it prohibits (1) lobbyists and PACs established by or for a lobbyist from making or offering to make contributions to or on behalf of these committees, (2) lobbyists from soliciting contributions for them, and (3) the committees from accepting the contributions.

Under the bill, a municipal office is an elective office for which only the electors of a single town, city, borough, or political subdivision may vote (other than state senator or representative). As under current law, the ban applies during regular sessions, any special session held between the end of a long session and the start of a short session, and any veto session held in an odd-numbered year.

Under existing law, the ban applies to contributions or solicitations for (1) candidate or exploratory committees for a legislative or statewide office and (2) PACs established by or for legislators or state officers or controlled by them.

The bill also makes technical and conforming changes.
