State Impact:

Agency Affected	Fund-Effect	FY 26 $	FY 27 $
Judicial Dept. (Probation)	GF - Potential Savings	Minimal	Minimal
Resources of the General Fund	GF - Potential Revenue Loss	Minimal	Minimal

Note: GF=General Fund

Municipal Impact: None

Explanation

The bill, which excludes the intentional discharge of a firearm in self-defense or the defense of others from a class C misdemeanor for unlawfully discharging a firearm, results in a potential savings to the Judicial Department for probation and a potential revenue loss to the General Fund from fines.<sup>1</sup> On average, the marginal cost for supervision in the community is less than $600<sup>2</sup> each year for adults and $450 each year for juveniles.

The Out Years

The annualized ongoing fiscal impact identified above would continue into the future subject to inflation and the actual number of violations.

<sup>1</sup> In FY 24, 331 charges were recorded and $1,850 in associated revenue was collected under CGS § 53-203.

<sup>2</sup> Probation marginal cost is based on services provided by private providers and only includes costs that increase with each additional participant.

OLR Bill Analysis*sHB 7194AN ACT CONCERNING SELF-DEFENSE.SUMMARY

This bill specifies that unlawfully discharging a firearm does not include intentionally discharging a firearm for lawful self-defense or defending another person.

Existing law allows the Department of Energy and Environmental Protection (DEEP) commissioner to adopt regulations and issue orders in the interest of public safety to prevent unreasonable conduct and abuses by hunters and to provide reasonable control for their actions and behaviors. The bill specifically prohibits the regulations or orders from prohibiting or being construed to prohibit intentionally discharging a firearm for lawful self-defense or defending another person.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 1, 2025

BACKGROUNDUnlawfully Discharging a Firearm

By law, a person unlawfully discharges a firearm when he or she intentionally, negligently, or carelessly discharges a firearm in a way likely to cause bodily injury or death to individuals or domestic animals, or the wanton destruction of property. Violators are guilty of a class C misdemeanor, punishable by up to three months imprisonment, up to a $500 fine, or both.

Justified Use of Force to Defend Self or Others

By law, a person is generally justified in using reasonable physical force to defend himself, herself, or a third person from what he or she reasonably believes to be the use or imminent use of force, and may use the degree of force reasonably believed necessary. Generally, a person can instead use deadly force if he or she reasonably believes that someone is using or about to use deadly physical force or inflict great bodily harm on them or someone else.

But despite these provisions, a person cannot use deadly force if he or she can avoid doing so with complete safety by (1) retreating, with certain exceptions (such as not having to do so at the person's home); (2) surrendering possession to property the other person claims to own; or (3) obeying a demand to not take an action he or she is not otherwise required to take.

The law provides certain other exceptions to the justified use of physical force, such as if the person provoked the attack with intent to cause injury or death to someone else (CGS § 53a-19).

Hunting Regulations

By law, the DEEP commissioner may adopt regulations and issue orders on various hunting-related prohibitions and restrictions. Among other things, these regulations and orders may prohibit (1) carrying loaded firearms and hunting within specified distances of buildings; (2) discharging firearms and other hunting devices within specified distances of buildings and, when within this distance, discharging them towards individuals, buildings, and livestock; and (3) damaging property, livestock, and agricultural crops.
