Explanation

The resolution proposes approval of a wage re-opener agreement between the State of Connecticut and the Connecticut State Police Union (NP-1) bargaining unit. The total cost of the agreement is $4,388,199 in FY 26 and $4,450,628 in FY 27. The re-opener agreement provides a general wage increase (GWI) of 2.5%² in FY 26.

Fringe Benefits

Fringe benefit related costs will be incurred on the wage related provisions negotiated in the contract. These benefits include Social ¹The fringe benefit costs for most state employees are budgeted centrally in accounts administered by the Comptroller. The estimated active employee fringe benefit cost associated with most personnel changes is 40.71% of payroll in FY 26.

² The original contract includes annual increments (AI), also known as Years of Service (YoS) increases, in FY 26.

Security (6.2%), Medicare (1.45%), state employee retirement system (SERS) normal cost (Hazardous Duty) (11.72%) and other post employment benefit (OPEB) and defined contribution (DC) match (1.61%).

Resident State Troopers

Per CGS Section 29-5, municipalities with resident state troopers are responsible for the cost of “compensation, maintenance and other expenses” of those troopers. Municipalities are responsible for 85% of the enumerated costs for the first two state troopers, and then 100% for those thereafter. The total cost to municipalities to reimburse the state is estimated to be $301,675 in FY 26 and $305,967 in FY 27.
