OFA Fiscal Note

State Impact: None

Explanation

The bill, which re-establishes the Open Choice Voucher pilot program, is not anticipated to result in a fiscal impact to the state or to municipalities.

These vouchers would be reserved for certain students and their families as part of the Rental Assistance Program (RAP). RAP issues new certificates based upon available funding. This pilot may change which households receive a RAP certificate, but it does not make changes to the cost of such certificates.
