Explanation

The bill conveys a specified parcel of land, totaling 0.18 acres, from the Department of Transportation to the town of Willington. The state would lose use of the asset. The town of Willington would gain use of an asset and would pay the administrative costs of the conveyance, including survey costs if necessary. The asset would revert to state control if the recipient does not use the land for specified purposes.

The land conveyance is subject to the review and approval of the State Properties Review Board.

The Out Years

The conveyance action is one time in nature. Control of the asset would continue into the future as described above, subject to future municipal decisions.
