SPONSORS OF BILL:

Government Administration and Elections Committee
Sen. Matthew Lesser, 9th Dist.

REASONS FOR BILL:

There exists a growing desire for more transparency and accountability in governmental proceedings and processes. This bill would seek to establish a task force concerning the regulation adoption process to study different aspects of the regulatory review process within the state. This would allow the Government Administrations and Elections Committee to be informed to create potential resolutions to increase the efficiency of this process.

RESPONSE FROM ADMINISTRATION/AGENCY:

None Expressed

NATURE AND SOURCES OF SUPPORT:

Paul Amarone, Advocacy Manager, Connecticut Business and Industry Association:

Establishing a task force to study the regulation review committee could help to streamline the regulatory review process and lead to more transparency for businesses. CBIA recommends adding specific language that will require the task force to study the current timeline for the review process and the impact these regulations have on businesses.

NATURE AND SOURCES OF OPPOSITION:

None Expressed
