

General Assembly

January Session, 2025

Raised Bill No. 7136

LCO No. 5734

Referred to Committee on JUDICIARY

Introduced by:
(JUD)

AN ACT CONCERNING THE REVISOR'S TECHNICAL REVISIONS TO THE GENERAL STATUTES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General
Assembly convened:

1 Section 1. Section 4-29b of the general statutes is repealed and the 2 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2025):

3 Any state agency which receives indirect cost recoveries from federal 4 grant funds or other sources, when such recoveries apply to costs
5 originally paid from the General Fund, shall deposit such cost recoveries 6 with the Treasurer, to the credit of General Fund revenues, unless such 7 deposit is waived by the Secretary of the Office of Policy and 8 Management. This section does not apply to any applicable surcharges 9 on assessments recovered by the state pursuant to sections 12-586f and 10 12-586g. [and 12-586f.] For purposes of this section "state agency" does 11 not include any constituent unit of the state system of higher education 12 or any state institution of higher education.

13 Sec. 2. Section 4-660 of the general statutes is repealed and the 14 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2025):

15 The Secretary of the Office of Policy and Management may establish 16 receivables for the revenue anticipated pursuant to subparagraph [(K)] 17 (L) of subdivision (1) of section 12-408 and section 4-66l.

18 Sec. 3. Subsection (e) of section 4-151 of the general statutes is 19 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 20 1, 2025):

21 (e) If any person refuses to testify or to produce any relevant, 22 unprivileged book, paper, record or document, the Claims 23 Commissioner, the Deputy Claims Commissioner or a special deputy 24 shall certify such fact to the Attorney General, who shall apply to the 25 superior court for the judicial district in which such person resides for 26 an order compelling compliance. Further refusal of such person shall be 27 punished as provided [by] in section 2-46. If such person is the claimant,
28 the Claims Commissioner, the Deputy Claims Commissioner or a 29 special deputy shall summarily dismiss the claim and order it forfeited 30 to the state.

31 Sec. 4. Section 4-151a of the general statutes is repealed and the 32 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2025):

33 Upon the motion of the Claims Commissioner, the Deputy Claims
34 Commissioner [,] or a special deputy, or at the request of the claimant 35 or the representative for the state, which representative may in 36 appropriate cases be the Attorney General, the Claims Commissioner, 37 the Deputy Claims Commissioner or a special deputy may waive the 38 hearing of any claim for ten thousand dollars or less and proceed upon 39 affidavits filed by the claimant and the state agency concerned.

40 Sec. 5. Subsection (h) of section 4-160 of the general statutes is 41 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 42 1, 2025):

43 (h) In each action authorized by the Claims Commissioner, the 44 Deputy Claims Commissioner or a special deputy, or any action where 45 permission to sue the state has been deemed to have been granted by 46 the Claims Commissioner, the Deputy Claims Commissioner or a 47 special deputy pursuant to subsections (a) to (f), inclusive, of this section 48 or by the General Assembly pursuant to section 4-159 [.] or 4-159a, the 49 claimant shall allege such authorization or permission and the date on 50 which it was granted, except that evidence of such authorization or 51 permission shall not be admissible in such action as evidence of the 52 state's liability. Except as provided in subsection (d) of this section, (1) 53 the state waives its immunity from liability and from suit in each such 54 action and waives all defenses which might arise from the eleemosynary 55 or governmental nature of the activity complained of, and (2) the rights 56 and liability of the state in each such action shall be coextensive with 57 and shall equal the rights and liability of private persons in like 58 circumstances.

59 Sec. 6. Subsection (j) of section 4-160 of the general statutes is repealed 60 and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2025):

61 (j) Civil process directed against the state shall be served as provided 62 [by] in section 52-64.

63 Sec. 7. Subsection (c) of section 4-186 of the general statutes is 64 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 65 1, 2025):

66 (c) The Employment Security Division, the Labor Commissioner or 67 said commissioner's designee with respect to the Family and Medical 68 Leave Insurance Program, the Board of Mediation and Arbitration of the 69 state Labor Department, the Office of the Claims Commissioner [.] and 70 the Workers' Compensation Commission are exempt from the 71 provisions of section 4-176e and sections 4-177 to 4-183, inclusive.

72 Sec. 8. Subsection (a) of section 7-438 of the general statutes is 73 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 74 1, 2025):

75 (a) Any member retired under this part who again accepts 76 employment from the state or from any municipality of the state other 77 than a participating municipality [,] shall continue to receive his or her 78 retirement allowance while so employed, and shall be eligible to 79 participate, and shall be entitled to credit, in the state retirement system 80 or such retirement system of such municipality, as applicable, for the 81 period of such employment.

82 Sec. 9. Subdivisions (4) and (5) of subsection (a) of section 12-217zz of 83 the general statutes are repealed and the following is substituted in lieu 84 thereof (Effective October 1, 2025):

85 (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (2) of this 86 subsection, the aggregate amount allowable of tax credits and any 87 remaining credits available under section 12-217j or 12-217n after tax 88 credits are utilized in accordance with said subdivision shall not exceed 89 (A) for income years commencing on or after January 1, 2022, and prior 90 to January 1, 2023, sixty per cent of the amount of tax due from such 91 taxpayer under this chapter with respect to any such income year of the 92 taxpayer prior to the application of such credit or credits, and (B) for 93 income years commencing on or after January 1, 2023, and prior to 94 January 1, 2024, seventy per cent of the amount of tax due from such 95 taxpayer under this chapter with respect to any such income year of the 96 taxpayer prior to the application of such credit or credits; [.]

97 (5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (2) of this 98 subsection, for income years commencing on or after January 1, 2024, 99 the aggregate amount allowable of tax credits and any remaining credits 100 available under section 12-217j or 12-217n or subparagraph (B) of 101 subdivision (4) of subsection (b) of section 12-217x, after tax credits are 102 utilized in accordance with subdivision (2) of this subsection, shall not 103 exceed seventy per cent of the amount of tax due from such taxpayer 104 under this chapter with respect to any such income year of the taxpayer 105 prior to the application of such credit or credits.

106 Sec. 10. Subsection (a) of section 12-287 of the general statutes is
107 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 108 1, 2025):

109 (a) Each person engaging in, or intending to engage in, the business 110 of selling cigarettes in this state as a dealer [.] and each person engaging 111 in, or intending to engage in, the business of selling taxed tobacco 112 products at retail [.] shall secure a dealer's license from the 113 Commissioner of Revenue Services before engaging in such business or 114 continuing to engage therein. The department shall not issue an initial 115 license to an applicant until such applicant has complied with the 116 provisions of subsection (b) of this section. Subject to the provisions of 117 section 12-286, such license shall be renewable annually, provided that 118 prior to renewal the commissioner shall consider any comments 119 received pursuant to section 12-287a.

120 Sec. 11. Subdivision (5) of subsection (e) of section 12-410 of the 121 general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu
122 thereof (Effective October 1, 2025):

123 (5) For purposes of subdivision (1) of this subsection, the sale of 124 services described in subdivision (37) of subsection (a) of section 12-407 125 shall be considered a sale for resale if such services are subsequently 126 resold as an integral, inseparable component part of digital goods sold 127 by the purchaser of the services to an ultimate consumer of the digital 128 goods. The purchaser of the services described in subdivision (37) of 129 subsection (a) of section 12-407 for resale shall maintain, in such form as 130 the commissioner requires, records that substantiate: (A) From whom 131 the services described in subdivision (37) of subsection (a) of section 12-132 407 were [purchases] purchased and to whom the digital goods were 133 sold, licensed [.] or leased, (B) the purchase prices of the services
134 described in subdivision (37) of subsection (a) of section 12-407, and (C) 135 the nature of the transaction with the ultimate consumer.

136 Sec. 12. Subsection (a) of section 17a-566 of the general statutes is

137 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 138 1, 2025):

139 (a) Except as provided in section 17a-574, any court prior to 140 sentencing a person convicted of an offense for which the penalty may 141 be imprisonment in any correctional institution of this state, or of a sex 142 offense involving (1) physical force or violence, (2) disparity of age 143 between an adult and a minor, or (3) a sexual act of a compulsive or 144 repetitive nature, may, if it appears to the court that such person has 145 psychiatric disabilities and is dangerous to himself, herself or others, 146 upon its own motion or upon request of any of the persons enumerated 147 in subsection (b) of this section and a subsequent finding that such 148 request is justified, order the commissioner to conduct an examination 149 of the convicted defendant by qualified personnel of the hospital. Upon 150 completion of such examination the examiner shall report in writing to 151 the court. Such report shall indicate whether the convicted defendant 152 should be committed to the diagnostic unit of the hospital for additional 153 examination or should be sentenced in accordance with the conviction.
154 Such examination shall be conducted and the report made to the court 155 not later than fifteen days after the order for the examination. Such 156 examination may be conducted at a correctional facility if the defendant 157 is confined or it may be conducted on an outpatient basis at the hospital 158 or other appropriate location. If the report recommends additional 159 examination at the diagnostic unit, the court may, after a hearing, order 160 the convicted defendant committed to the diagnostic unit of the hospital 161 for a period not to exceed sixty days, except as provided in section 17a-162 567 provided the hearing may be waived by the defendant. Such 163 commitment shall not be effective until the director certifies to the court 164 that space is available at the diagnostic unit. While confined in said 165 diagnostic unit, the defendant shall be given a complete physical and 166 psychiatric examination by the staff of the unit and may receive 167 medication and treatment without his consent. The director shall have 168 authority to procure all court records, institutional records and 169 probation or other reports which provide information about the 170 defendant.

171 Sec. 13. Subsection (a) of section 17a-238b of the general statutes is 172 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 173 1, 2025):

174 (a) The Commissioner of Developmental Services, in consultation 175 with the Commissioner of Social Services and the Secretary of the Office 176 of Policy and Management, shall reduce waiting lists for services in 177 Medicaid waiver programs established under Section 1915(c) of the 178 Social Security Act and administered by the Department of 179 Developmental Services. Not later than January 1, 2024, and annually 180 thereafter, the Commissioner of Developmental Services, in 181 consultation with the Office of Policy and Management staff person 182 employed pursuant to section 4-67bb to help agencies coordinate 183 programs and services for individuals who have an intellectual or 184 developmental disability other than autism spectrum disorder, shall file 185 a report, in accordance with the provisions of section 11-4a, with the 186 joint standing committees of the General Assembly having cognizance 187 of matters relating to appropriations, human services and public health.
188 The report shall include, but need not be limited to, data from the prior 189 fiscal year regarding information on persons currently receiving 190 services through the Medicaid waiver programs administered by the 191 Department of Developmental Services. Such information shall include 192 aggregated, deidentified data regarding the following:

193 (1) The number and age ranges of persons who are not receiving 194 services through the department's Medicaid waiver programs and are 195 included on the department's [wait] waiting list for residential services;

196 (2) The number and age ranges of persons who are currently 197 receiving Medicaid waiver program services through the department, 198 but are waiting for residential services and are included on the 199 department's [wait] waiting list for residential support services, 200 including the type of services being provided;

201 (3) Whether such waiting lists have increased or decreased over the 202 previous fiscal year and, if so, by how many persons;

203 (4) The number of persons who have an intellectual or developmental 204 disability other than autism spectrum disorder who are waiting for 205 access to employment opportunities or day services;

206 (5) The number and age ranges of the primary caregiver for persons 207 with an intellectual or developmental disability other than autism 208 spectrum disorder who are living in their family home;

209 (6) Recommendations and initiatives the department is developing to 210 reduce the waiting list over the next fiscal year;

211 (7) The number and age ranges of individuals currently being served 212 through the Medicaid waiver programs;

213 (8) The number and age ranges of individuals currently receiving 214 residential services through the Medicaid waiver programs; and

215 (9) The number and age ranges of persons added to and subtracted 216 from waiting lists over the previous fiscal year.

217 Sec. 14. Subsection (a) of section 17b-80 of the general statutes is 218 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 219 1, 2025):

220 (a) The commissioner, upon receipt of an application for aid, shall 221 promptly and with due diligence make an investigation, such 222 investigation to be completed within forty-five days after receipt of the 223 application or within sixty days after receipt of the application in the 224 case of an application in which a determination of disability must be 225 made. If an application for an award is not acted on within forty-five 226 days after the filing of an application, or within sixty days in the case of 227 an application in which a determination of disability must be made, the 228 applicant may apply to the commissioner for a hearing in accordance 229 with sections 17b-60 and 17b-61. The commissioner shall grant aid only 230 if [he] the commissioner finds the applicant eligible therefor, in which 231 case [he] the commissioner shall grant aid in such amount, determined 232 in accordance with levels of payments established by the commissioner, 233 as is needed in order to enable the applicant to support himself or 234 herself, or, in the case of temporary family assistance, to enable the 235 relative to support such dependent child or children and himself or 236 herself, in health and decency, including the costs of such medical care 237 as he deems necessary and reasonable, not in excess of the amounts set 238 forth in the various fee schedules promulgated by the Commissioner of 239 Social Services for medical, dental and allied services and supplies or 240 the charges made for comparable services and supplies to the general 241 public, whichever is less, and the cost of necessary hospitalization as is 242 provided in section 17b-239, over and above hospital insurance or other 243 such benefits, including workers' compensation and claims for 244 negligent or wilful injury. The commissioner, subject to the provisions 245 of subsection (b) of this section, shall, in determining need, take into 246 consideration any available income and resources of the individual 247 claiming assistance. The commissioner shall make periodic 248 investigations to determine eligibility and may, at any time, modify, 249 suspend or discontinue an award previously made when such action is 250 necessary to carry out the provisions of the state supplement program, 251 medical assistance program, temporary family assistance program, 252 state-administered general assistance program or supplemental 253 nutrition assistance program. The parent or parents of any child for 254 whom aid is received under the temporary family assistance program 255 and any beneficiary receiving assistance under the state supplement 256 program shall be conclusively presumed to have accepted the 257 provisions of sections 17b-93 and 17b-95.

258 Sec. 15. Subsection (a) of section 17b-261 of the general statutes is
 259 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 260 1, 2025):

261 (a) Medical assistance shall be provided for any otherwise eligible 262 person (1) whose income, including any available support from legally

263 liable relatives and the income of the person's spouse or dependent 264 child, is not more than one hundred fifty-nine per cent, pending 265 approval of a federal waiver applied for pursuant to subsection (e) of 266 this section, of the benefit amount paid to a person with no income 267 under the temporary family assistance program, and (2) if such person 268 is an institutionalized individual as defined in Section 1917 of the Social 269 Security Act, 42 USC 1396p(h)(3), and has not made an assignment or 270 transfer or other disposition of property for less than fair market value 271 for the purpose of establishing eligibility for benefits or assistance under 272 this section. Any such disposition shall be treated in accordance with 273 Section 1917(c) of the Social Security Act, 42 USC 1396p(c). Any 274 disposition of property made on behalf of an applicant or recipient or 275 the spouse of an applicant or recipient by a guardian, conservator, 276 person authorized to make such disposition pursuant to a power of 277 attorney or other person so authorized by law shall be attributed to such 278 applicant, recipient or spouse. A disposition of property ordered by a 279 court shall be evaluated in accordance with the standards applied to any 280 other such disposition for the purpose of determining eligibility. The 281 commissioner shall establish the standards for eligibility for medical 282 assistance at one hundred fifty-nine per cent of the benefit amount paid 283 to a household of equal size with no income under the temporary family 284 assistance program. In determining eligibility, the commissioner shall 285 not consider as income Aid and Attendance pension benefits granted to 286 a veteran, as defined in section 27-103, or the surviving spouse of such 287 veteran. Except as provided in section 17b-277 and section 17b-292, the 288 medical assistance program shall provide coverage to persons under the 289 age of nineteen with household income up to one hundred ninety-six 290 per cent of the federal poverty level without an asset limit and to 291 persons under the age of nineteen, who qualify for coverage under 292 Section 1931 of the Social Security Act, with household income not 293 exceeding one hundred ninety-six per cent of the federal poverty level 294 without an asset limit, and their parents and needy caretaker relatives, 295 who qualify for coverage under Section 1931 of the Social Security Act, 296 with household income not exceeding one hundred thirty-three per cent

297 of the federal poverty level without an asset limit. Such levels shall be 298 based on the regional differences in such benefit amount, if applicable, 299 unless such levels based on regional differences are not in conformance 300 with federal law. Any income in excess of the applicable amounts shall 301 be applied as may be required by said federal law, and assistance shall 302 be granted for the balance of the cost of authorized medical assistance.
 303 The Commissioner of Social Services shall provide applicants for 304 assistance under this section, at the time of application, with a written 305 statement advising them of (A) the effect of an assignment or transfer or 306 other disposition of property on eligibility for benefits or assistance, (B) 307 the effect that having income that exceeds the limits prescribed in this 308 subsection will have with respect to program eligibility, and (C) the 309 availability of, and eligibility for, services provided by the Connecticut 310 Home Visiting System, established pursuant to section 17b-751b. For 311 coverage dates on or after January 1, 2014, the department shall use the 312 modified adjusted gross income financial eligibility rules set forth in 313 Section 1902(e)(14) of the Social Security Act and the implementing 314 regulations to determine eligibility for HUSKY A, HUSKY B and 315 HUSKY D applicants, as defined in section 17b-290. Persons who are 316 determined ineligible for assistance pursuant to this section shall be 317 provided a written statement notifying such persons of their ineligibility 318 and advising such persons of their potential eligibility for one of the 319 other insurance affordability programs as defined in 42 CFR 435.4.

320 Sec. 16. Subsection (k) of section 19a-561 of the general statutes is 321 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 322 1, 2025):

323 (k) In any case in which the commissioner finds that there has been a 324 substantial failure to comply with the requirements established under 325 this chapter, or regulations adopted thereunder, the commissioner may 326 require the nursing facility licensee and the nursing facility 327 management [service] services certificate holder to jointly submit a plan 328 of correction as described in section 19a-496. A plan of correction 329 accepted by the department shall constitute an order of the department.

330 Violation of such order may be the subject of disciplinary action against 331 a nursing facility management services certificate holder pursuant to 332 section 19a-494.

333 Sec. 17. Subdivision (10) of subsection (a) of section 32-1m of the 334 general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu
335 thereof (Effective October 1, 2025):

336 (10) An overview of the department's activities concerning digital 337 media, motion pictures and related production activity, and an analysis 338 of the use of the film production tax credit established under section 12-339 217jj, the entertainment industry infrastructure tax credit established 340 under section 12-217kk and the digital animation production tax credit 341 established under section 12-217ll, including the amount of any tax 342 credit issued under said sections, the total amount of production 343 expenses or costs incurred in the state by the taxpayer who was issued 344 such a tax credit and the information submitted in the report required 345 under subparagraph (A) of subdivision [(1)] (2) of subsection (h) of 346 section 12-217jj.

347 Sec. 18. Subsection (e) of section 34-267g of the general statutes is 348 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 349 1, 2025):

350 (e) After filing the certificate of dissolution by forfeiture, the Secretary 351 of the State shall: (1) Send a copy thereof to the delinquent limited 352 liability company addressed to such limited liability [company]
353 company's electronic mail address as last shown on the Secretary's 354 records; and (2) cause notice of the filing of such certificate of dissolution 355 by forfeiture to be posted on the office of the Secretary of the State's 356 Internet web site for a period of sixty days following the date on which 357 the Secretary of the State files the certificate of dissolution by forfeiture.

358 Sec. 19. Subparagraph (A) of subdivision (8) of subsection (q) of 359 section 46b-121n of the general statutes is repealed and the following is 360 substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2025):

361 (A) The plan developed pursuant to this subsection shall include, but 362 need not be limited to:

363 (i) Identification of a single state agency and designation of a program 364 manager within that agency who will be responsible for planning, 365 coordination, oversight, supervision, quality control, legal compliance 366 and allocation of relevant federal and state funds for children in justice 367 system custody;

368 (ii) A detailed description of how educational services will be 369 provided to children in justice system custody and how education-370 related supports will be provided to children during transition out of 371 justice system custody, either directly by the single state agency 372 identified by the plan pursuant to clause (i) of this subparagraph or 373 through a state-wide contract with a single nonprofit provider;

374 (iii) An analysis of resources expended for educating children in 375 justice system custody and for supporting educational success during 376 transitions out of justice system custody, and recommendations for 377 consolidating and reallocating resources towards the oversight, 378 accountability, services and supports provided for in the plan pursuant 379 to this subsection;

380 (iv) Provisions for ensuring that a range of pathways to educational 381 and economic opportunity are available for children in justice system 382 custody, including at a minimum a traditional high school diploma
383 program, an accelerated credit recovery program, vocational training 384 programs and access to post-secondary educational options;

385 (v) Specifications for a state-wide accountability and quality control 386 system for schools that serve children in justice system custody. The 387 accountability and quality control system shall include, but need not be 388 limited to:

389 (I) A specialized school profile and performance report, to be 390 produced annually for each school that serves children in justice system

391 custody. The profiles and performance reports shall be consistent with 392 other accountability systems required by law and shall include criteria 393 and metrics tailored to measuring the quality of schools that serve 394 children in justice system custody. Such metrics shall include, but need 395 not be limited to: Student growth in reading and math; credit 396 accumulation; modified graduation rates and high school equivalent 397 passage rates; school attendance, defined as the percentage of children 398 who are actually physically present in classrooms for school and 399 educational programs; the percentage of students pursuing a high 400 school diploma, an industry-based certification, a recognized high 401 school diploma equivalent, credits for advanced courses and post-402 secondary education programs; performance in educating children with 403 exceptionalities, including identification of special education needs, the 404 development of best-practices for individualized education programs 405 and the provision of services and supports mandated by individualized 406 education programs; student reenrollment in school or other 407 educational or vocational training programs after leaving justice system 408 custody; student success in post-release high school, post-secondary 409 education [] or job-training programs; and compliance with the 410 protocols for support of educational transitions delineated in clause (vi) 411 of this subparagraph;

412 (II) Identifying achievement benchmarks for each measurement of 413 school quality;

414 (III) Written standards for educational quality for schools that serve 415 children in custody;

416 (IV) A program for quality control and evaluation of schools serving 417 children in custody. The program shall include, but need not be limited 418 to, in-person observation and monitoring of each school serving 419 children in justice system custody. The monitoring shall occur at least 420 annually, and shall be conducted by experts in special education and 421 education in justice-system settings;

422 (V) Provisions for ensuring that each school serving children in 423 justice system custody seeks and obtains external accreditation by a 424 recognized accrediting agency; and

448 (III) Timelines for reenrollment and credit transfer;

449 (viii) Recommendations for any legislation that may be necessary or 450 appropriate to implement the provisions of the plan developed 451 pursuant to this subsection; and

452 (ix) A timeline for implementation of the plan developed pursuant to 453 this subsection.

454 Sec. 20. Subsection (a) of section 46b-142 of the general statutes is
455 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 456 1, 2025):

457 (a) The Chief Court Administrator shall establish districts for the 458 purpose of establishing venue in juvenile matters. All petitions 459 concerning delinquent children or youths shall be heard within the 460 district where the delinquency is alleged to have occurred or where the 461 child or youth resides, in the discretion of the court. All other petitions 462 shall be heard within the district where the child or youth resided at the 463 time of the filing of the petition, but for the purposes of this section any 464 child or youth born in any hospital or institution where the mother is 465 confined at the time of birth shall be deemed to have residence in the 466 district wherein such child's or youth's mother was living at the time of 467 her admission to such hospital or institution.

468 Sec. 21. Subsection (a) of section 51-10c of the general statutes is 469 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 470 1, 2025):

471 (a) There is established a Commission on Racial and Ethnic Disparity 472 in the Criminal Justice System. The commission shall consist of the Chief 473 Court Administrator, the Chief State's Attorney, the Chief Public 474 Defender, the Commissioner of Emergency Services and Public 475 Protection, the Commissioner of Correction, the Commissioner of 476 Children and Families, the Child Advocate, the Victim Advocate, the 477 chairperson of the Board of Pardons and Paroles, the chairperson of the 479 their designees, two members of the Commission on Women, Children,

480 Seniors, Equity and Opportunity designated by the executive director of 481 the commission, a representative of municipal police chiefs, a 482 representative of a coalition representing police and [correctional] 483 correction officers, six members appointed one each by the president 484 pro tempore of the Senate, the speaker of the House of Representatives, 485 the majority leader of the Senate, the majority leader of the House of 486 Representatives, the minority leader of the Senate and the minority 487 leader of the House of Representatives, and two members appointed by 488 the Governor. The Chief Court Administrator or said administrator's 489 designee shall serve as chairperson of the commission. The commission 490 shall meet quarterly and at such other times as the chairperson deems 491 necessary.

492 Sec. 22. Subsection (a) of section 51-277e of the general statutes is 493 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 494 1, 2025):

495 (a) There is established the Office of the Inspector General that shall 496 be a separate office within the Division of Criminal Justice. Not later 497 than October 1, 2021, the Criminal Justice Commission established 498 pursuant to section 51-275a shall appoint a deputy chief state's attorney 499 as Inspector General who shall lead the Office of the Inspector General.
500 The office shall: (1) Conduct investigations of peace officers in 501 accordance with section 51-277a; (2) prosecute any case in which the 502 Inspector General determines a peace officer used force found to not be 503 justifiable pursuant to section 53a-22 or where a police officer or 504 [correctional] correction officer fails to intervene in any such incident or 505 to report any such incident, as required under subsection (a) of section 506 7-282e or section 18-81nn, as applicable; (3) investigate any failure to 507 report the death of a person in accordance with the provisions of section 508 7-294mm; (4) investigate any failure to report in accordance with the 509 provisions of subdivision (1) of subsection (h) of section 7-294d; and (5)
510 make recommendations to the Police Officer Standards and Training 511 Council established under section 7-294b concerning censure and 512 suspension, renewal, cancelation or revocation of a peace officer's

513 certification, provided in the case of a failure to report a death of a 514 person, any such recommendation may be made to said council only in 515 a case where such failure is found to be intentional or made with 516 reckless indifference, or if there is no finding that such failure was 517 intentional or made with reckless indifference, a recommendation may 518 be made to the officer's employing agency for any further disciplinary 519 action as so determined by such employing agency.
