(11) "Loan period" means the period of time commencing with the creation and transmission by a library to a borrower of a copy of any electronic literary material and concluding with the deletion of such copy by the library, as determined by the library.

(b) The provisions of this section shall apply to any contract or license agreement entered into or renewed on and after July 1, 2026, by a library in the state with a publisher for the license of any electronic literary material.

(c) On and after July 1, 2026, no library in the state shall enter into or renew any contract or license agreement with a publisher that precludes, limits or restricts the library from performing customary operational or lending functions, including any provision that:

(1) Prohibits the library from loaning any electronic literary material,including through any interlibrary loan system;

(2) Restricts the number of times the library may loan any electronic literary material over the course of the contract or license agreement if such contract or agreement also restricts the library's loan period for electronic literary material;

(3) Limits the number of electronic literary material licenses the library may purchase on the same date such electronic literary material is made available for purchase by the public;

64 (4) Prohibits the library from making nonpublic preservation copies65 of any electronic literary material;

(5) Restricts the library from disclosing the terms of the contract orlicense agreement to any other library in the state;

(6) Restricts the duration of the contract or license agreement unless the library also has the option of a contract or license agreement on commercially reasonable terms in consideration of the library's mission, that either (A) is based on a pay-per-use model, or (B) provides for the 72 perpetual public use of the electronic literary material;

(7) Requires the library to violate the provisions of section 11-25 ofthe general statutes;

(8) Provides that the contract or license agreement is not severable from any provision within such contract or agreement that is found in a judicial forum to be prohibited by this subsection; or

(9) Allows the enforcement of any of the provisions prohibited by thissubsection other than in a judicial forum.

80 (d) Any library in the state may enter into a contract or license81 agreement with a publisher that contains:

82 (1) A limitation on the number of borrowers the library may allow to83 have simultaneous access to any electronic literary material; or

84 (2) A provision concerning the library's reasonable use of any85 technological protection measure that prevents a borrower from:

86 (A) Maintaining access to any electronic literary material beyond the87 access period specified in the contract or license agreement; and

(B) Providing other borrowers with access to any electronic literarymaterial.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:Section 1July 1, 2026, and applicable to contracts or license agreements entered into or renewed on or after said dateNew section
