(c) If a collaborative lawyer reasonably believes that the party the lawyer represents or the prospective party who consults the lawyer has a history of a coercive or violent relationship with another party or prospective party, the lawyer may not begin or continue a collaborative law process unless: (1) The party or the prospective party requests beginning or continuing a process; and (2) the collaborative lawyer

Sec. 16. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2025) A collaborative law communication is confidential to the extent agreed by the parties in a signed record or as provided by law of this state other than the provisions of sections 1 to 22, inclusive, of this act.

Sec. 17. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2025) (a) Subject to the provisions of sections 18 and 19 of this act, a collaborative law communication is privileged under subsection (b) of this section, is not subject to discovery and is not admissible in evidence.

(b) In a proceeding, the following privileges apply: (1) A party may refuse to disclose, and may prevent any other person from disclosing, a collaborative law communication; and (2) a nonparty participant may refuse to disclose, and may prevent any other person from disclosing, a collaborative law communication of the nonparty participant.

(c) Evidence or information that is otherwise admissible or subject to discovery does not become inadmissible or protected from discovery solely because of its disclosure or use in a collaborative law process.

Sec. 18. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2025) (a) A privilege under subsection (b) of section 17 of this act may be waived in a record or orally during a proceeding if it is expressly waived by all parties and, in the case of the privilege of a nonparty participant, it is also expressly waived by the nonparty participant.

(b) A person that makes a disclosure or representation about a collaborative law communication which prejudices another person in a proceeding may not assert a privilege under subsection (b) of section 17 of this act but this preclusion applies only to the extent necessary for the person prejudiced to respond to the disclosure or representation.

Senate Bill No. 1283

Sec. 19. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2025) (a) There is no privilege under subsection (b) of section 17 of this act for a collaborative law communication that is: (1) Available to the public under the Freedom of Information Act, as defined in section 1-200 of the general statutes, or made during a session of a collaborative law process that is open, or is required by law to be open, to the public; (2) a threat or statement of a plan to inflict bodily injury or commit a crime of violence; (3) intentionally used to plan a crime, commit or attempt to commit a crime or conceal an ongoing crime or ongoing criminal activity; or (4) in an agreement resulting from the collaborative law process, evidenced by a record signed by all parties to the agreement.

(b) The privileges under subsection (b) of section 17 of this act for a collaborative law communication do not apply to the extent that a communication is sought or offered to prove or disprove: (1) A claim or complaint of professional misconduct or malpractice arising from or related to a collaborative law process; or (2) abuse, neglect, abandonment or exploitation of a child or adult, unless the Department of Children and Families or the Department of Social Services is a party to or otherwise participates in the process.

(c) There is no privilege under subsection (b) of section 17 of this act if a tribunal finds, after a hearing in camera, that the party seeking discovery or the proponent of the evidence has shown the evidence is not otherwise available, the need for the evidence substantially outweighs the interest in protecting confidentiality and the collaborative law communication is sought or offered in: (1) A court proceeding involving a felony or misdemeanor; or (2) a proceeding seeking rescission or reformation of a contract arising out of the collaborative law process or in which a defense to avoid liability on the contract is asserted.

(d) If a collaborative law communication is subject to an exception under subsection (b) or (c) of this section, only the part of the communication necessary for the application of the exception may be disclosed or admitted.

(e) Disclosure or admission of evidence excepted from the privilege under subsection (b) or (c) of this section does not make the evidence or any other collaborative law communication discoverable or admissible for any other purpose.

(f) The privileges under subsection (b) of section 17 of this act do not apply if the parties agree in advance in a signed record, or if a record of a proceeding reflects agreement by the parties, that all or part of a collaborative law process is not privileged. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to a collaborative law communication made by a person that did not receive actual notice of the agreement before the communication was made.

Sec. 20. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2025) (a) If an agreement fails to meet the requirements of section 4 of this act, or a lawyer fails to comply with the provisions of section 14 or 15 of this act, a tribunal may nonetheless find that the parties intended to enter into a collaborative law participation agreement if they: (1) Signed a record indicating an intention to enter into a collaborative law participation agreement; and (2) reasonably believed they were participating in a collaborative law process.

(b) If a tribunal makes the findings specified in subsection (a) of this section, and the interests of justice require, the tribunal may: (1) Enforce an agreement evidenced by a record resulting from the process in which the parties participated; (2) apply the disqualification provisions of sections 5, 6, 9, 10 and 11 of this act; and (3) apply a privilege under the provisions of subsection (b) of section 17 of this act.

Sec. 21. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2025) In applying and construing the provisions of sections 1 to 22, inclusive, of this act, consideration shall be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

Sec. 22. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2025) The provisions of sections 1 to 22, inclusive, of this act modify, limit and supersede the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 USC 7001, et seq., but do not modify, limit or supersede Section 101(c) of said act, 15 USC 7001(c) or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in Section 103(b) of said act, 15 USC 7003(b).
