Such written notice shall toll the time for making application to the commission pursuant to section 20-324d. The commission or department shall have the right to enter an appearance, intervene in or defend any such action and may waive the required written notice for good cause shown.]

[(b)] (a) When any aggrieved person [recovers a valid judgment in the Superior Court] obtains a binding arbitration decision, administrative decision, court judgment, order or decree against any real estate licensee or the unlicensed employee of any such real estate licensee for loss or damages sustained by reason of the embezzlement of money or property, or money or property unlawfully obtained from any person by false pretenses, artifice or forgery or by reason of any fraud, misrepresentation or deceit by or on the part of such real estate licensee or the unlicensed employee of any such real estate [broker] licensee, such aggrieved person may upon the final determination of, or expiration of time for appeal in connection with, any decision, judgment, order or decree, apply to the [commission] department for an order directing payment out of the Real Estate Guaranty Fund of the amount unpaid upon the decision, judgment, order or decree, subject to the limitations stated in section 20-324a and the limitations specified in this section.

[(c)] (b) The [commission] department shall proceed upon such application in a summary manner, and [, upon the hearing thereof,] the aggrieved person shall be required to show that: (1) Such aggrieved person is not a spouse of the debtor or the personal representative of such spouse; (2) such aggrieved person has complied with all the requirements of this section; (3) such aggrieved person has obtained a decision, judgment, order or decree as provided in subsection [(b)] (a) of this section, stating the amount thereof and the amount owing thereon at the date of the application; (4) such aggrieved person has caused to be issued a writ of execution upon the decision, judgment, order or decree and the officer executing the same has made a return showing that no personal or real property of the [judgment] debtor liable to be levied upon in satisfaction of the decision, judgment, order or decree could be found, or that the amount realized on the sale of them or of such of them as were found, under the execution, was insufficient to satisfy the decision, judgment, order or decree, stating the amount so realized and the balance remaining due on the decision, judgment, order or decree after application thereon of the amount realized; (5) such aggrieved person has made all reasonable searches and inquiries to ascertain whether the [judgment debtor] real estate licensee or unlicensed employee of a real estate licensee possesses real or personal property or other assets, liable to be sold or applied in satisfaction of the decision, judgment, order or decree; and (6) that by such search such aggrieved person has discovered no personal or real property or other assets liable to be sold or applied, or that such aggrieved person has discovered certain of them, describing them, owned by the [judgment debtor] real estate licensee or unlicensed employee of a real estate licensee and liable to be so applied, and that such aggrieved person has taken all necessary action and proceedings for the realization thereof, and that the amount thereby realized was insufficient to satisfy the decision, judgment, order or decree, stating the amount so realized and the balance remaining due on the decision, judgment, order or decree after application of the amount realized.

[(d)] (c) Whenever the aggrieved person satisfies the [commission] department that it is not practicable to comply with one or more of the requirements enumerated in subdivisions (4), (5) and (6) of subsection [(c)] (b) of this section and that such aggrieved person has taken all reasonable steps to collect the amount of the decision, judgment, order or decree or the unsatisfied part thereof and has been unable to collect the same, the [commission] department may in its discretion waive such requirements.

[(e)] (d) The [commission] department shall order payment from the Real Estate Guaranty Fund of any sum it shall find to be payable upon the claim, pursuant to the provisions of and in accordance with the limitations contained in this section and section 20-324a, if the [commission] department is satisfied [, upon the hearing,] of the truth of all matters required to be shown by the aggrieved person by subsection [(c)] (b) of this section and that such aggrieved person has fully pursued and exhausted all remedies available to such aggrieved person for recovering the amount awarded by the decision, judgment, [of the court] order or decree.

[(f)] (e) If the [commission] department pays from the Real Estate Guaranty Fund any amount in settlement of a claim or toward satisfaction of a decision, judgment, order or decree against a real estate licensee or an unlicensed employee of a real estate licensee pursuant to an order under subsection [(e)] (d) of this section, such [real estate licensee] person shall not be eligible to receive a new license until such [real estate licensee] person has repaid in full, plus interest at [a] the rate [to be determined by the commission and which shall reflect current market rates, the amount paid from the fund on such real estate licensee's account] of ten per cent per year. A discharge in bankruptcy shall not relieve a person from the penalties and disabilities provided in [(g)] (f) If, at any time, the money deposited in the Real Estate Guaranty Fund is insufficient to satisfy any duly authorized claim or portion thereof, the [commission] department shall, when sufficient money has been deposited in the fund, satisfy such unpaid claims or portions thereof, in the order that such claims or portions thereof were originally filed, plus accumulated interest at the rate of four per cent a year.

Sec. 6. Subsection (b) of section 20-333 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):

Any person completing the required apprentice training program for a journeyman's license under section 20-334a shall, [within] not later than thirty days [following such completion] after completing such program, apply for a licensure examination given by the department or a person authorized by the department to give such examination. If an applicant does not pass such licensure examination, the commissioner shall provide each failed applicant with information on how to retake the examination and a report describing the applicant's strengths and weaknesses in such examination. Any apprentice permit issued under section 20-334a to an applicant who fails three licensure examinations in any one-year period shall remain in effect if such

Otherwise, such permit shall be revoked as of the date of the first examination given by the department following expiration of such one-year period. Upon application to the department for an initial license under the provisions of this chapter, an applicant shall submit evidence of successful completion of the applicant's final licensure examination, which successful completion shall occur not more than two years prior to the date of the relevant licensure application, unless the appropriate board grants a hardship extension of such two-year period.

Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (d) or (e) of section 53a-29 and subsection (d) of section 54-56e, if the court determines that such person cannot fully repay any victims of such person within the period of probation established in subsection (d) or (e) of section 53a-29 or subsection (d) of section 54-56e, the court may impose probation for a period of not more than five years. Such penalty shall be in an amount not to exceed three thousand dollars for each violation of this [subsection] subdivision, except that any individual employed as an apprentice but improperly registered shall not be penalized for a first offense.

[(e)] (5) If an examining board or the Commissioner of Consumer Protection imposes a civil penalty under the provisions of [subsection (d) of this section] subdivision (4) of this subsection as a result of a violation initially reported by a municipal building official in accordance with subsection (c) of section 29-261, the commissioner shall, not less than sixty days after collecting such civil penalty, remit one-half of the amount collected to such municipality.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 1357

[(f)] (6) A violation of any of the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed an unfair or deceptive trade practice under subsection (a) of section 42-110b.

[(g)] (7) This section shall not apply to any person who [(1)] (A) holds a license issued under this chapter, chapter 394, chapter 399b or chapter 482 and performs work that is incidentally, directly and immediately appropriate to the performance of such person's trade where such work commences at an outlet, receptacle or connection previously installed by a person holding the proper license, or [(2)] (B) engages in work that does not require a license under this chapter, chapter 394, chapter 399b or chapter 482.

(b) (1) The Department of Consumer Protection may issue a notice of violation against a person following an inspection of any place or premises, performed in accordance with section 21a-11, as amended by this act, where the department discovers one or more of the following violations: (A) Offering or performing work that requires a credential under this chapter without the appropriate credential, in violation of section 20-334, (B) failure to comply with the allowable hiring ratios set forth in section 20-332b, (C) failure to obtain an apprentice registration certificate for one or more persons as required by applicable law, or (D) failure to obtain a permit as required by applicable law.

(2) (A) If the Department of Consumer Protection determines that a person has failed to correct all violations for which a notice of violation was issued pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection, the department may issue a stop work order against such person requiring the cessation of the practice of the trade or occupation for which a credential is required under this chapter, at the place or premises where the violation was found, as set forth in the notice of violation. tracking and delivery confirmation, or (iv) posting notice of the stop work order in a conspicuous location at the place or premises subject to such stop work order.

(B) A stop work order served in the manner set forth in subparagraph (A) of this subdivision shall remain in effect until the department (i) determines that the person against whom the department issued the stop work order has come into compliance with the requirements set forth in the notice of violation issued pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection, and (ii) issues an order releasing such stop work order (I) after a hearing decision rendered in accordance with subdivision (4) of this subsection, or (II) after a decision rendered by the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative pursuant to subdivision (5) of this subsection.

(3) If a person fails to comply with a stop work order following service made in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (2) of this subsection, the Department of Consumer Protection may impose on such person a fine in an amount not to exceed five hundred dollars per violation per day after such stop work order was served. Such fine shall be effective upon written notice to the person who failed to comply with the stop work order and payment of such fine shall be due to the department not later than fifteen days after such person receives such written notice. Any fine for failure to comply with a stop work order shall be deposited in the consumer protection enforcement account established in section 21a-8a.

(4) Any person who holds a credential issued by the Department of Consumer Protection pursuant to this chapter and has been served with a stop work order pursuant to subdivision (2) of this subsection may request an administrative hearing to contest such stop work order and any associated fine imposed on such person pursuant to subdivision (3) of this subsection. (5) (A) Any person who does not hold a credential issued by the Department of Consumer Protection pursuant to this chapter and has been served with a stop work order pursuant to subdivision (2) of this subsection may submit a petition to the commissioner to lift the stop work order on the ground that (i) an error of fact or law should be corrected, (ii) new evidence has been discovered (I) which materially affects the merits of such stop work order, and (II) which for good reasons was not presented to the department upon such person's receipt of the notice of violation, or (iii) other good cause has been shown.

(B) A petition submitted pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this subdivision shall be submitted in writing not later than fifteen days after the person was served with a stop work order pursuant to subdivision (2) of this subsection. Such petition shall not operate to toll such stop work order or any associated fine imposed on such person pursuant to subdivision (3) of this subsection unless so ordered by the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative. The decision of the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative on such petition, or the failure by the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative to render a decision within the fifteen-day period beginning on the date on which the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative received such petition, shall constitute a final decision for purposes of chapter 54 and the person may appeal therefrom in accordance with section 4-183.
