Explanation

The amendment strikes the underlying bill and its associated fiscal impact resulting in the following impact.

The amendment reduces the annual fee for a café permit from $2,000 to $200 for railways resulting in a potential revenue loss to the General Fund of up to $18,000 per year. The potential revenue loss is dependent on how many café liquor permittees meet the requirements of a railway. It is anticipated this will affect less than ten café permittees.
