- (2) (A) If an agreement is rejected, the matter shall be returned to the parties, who shall initiate arbitration in accordance with the provisions of section 5-276a, as amended by this act. The parties [may submit] shall file any award issued pursuant to such arbitration [to the General Assembly for approval in the same manner as the rejected agreement] with the clerks of the House of Representatives or the Senate within ten days after the date such award is distributed. The General Assembly may (i) approve any such award as a whole by a majority vote of each house, (ii) reject any such award as a whole by a majority vote of either house, or (iii) modify any such award by a majority vote of either house. If the arbitration award is rejected by the General Assembly, the matter shall be returned again to the parties for further arbitration. Any award issued pursuant to such further arbitration shall [be deemed approved by the General Assembly again be filed with the General Assembly and the General Assembly may approve, reject or modify such award in accordance with the provisions of this subparagraph.
 - (B) If an arbitration award, other than an award issued pursuant to subparagraph (A) of this subdivision, is rejected, the matter shall be returned to the parties for further arbitration. Any award issued pursuant to such further arbitration shall [be deemed approved by the General Assembly] again be filed with the General Assembly and the General Assembly may approve, reject or modify such award in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (A) of this subdivision.

Sec. 502. Subdivision (6) of subsection (e) of section 5-276a of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2025):

(6) The award of the arbitrator shall be [final and binding upon the employer and the designated employee organization unless rejected by the legislature as provided in section 5-278, except that a filed with the clerks of the House of Representatives or the Senate within ten days after the date such award is distributed. The General Assembly may (A) approve any such award as a whole by a majority vote of each house, (B) reject any such award as a whole by a majority vote of either house, or (C) modify any such award by a majority vote of either house. A motion to vacate or modify the arbitrator's decision concerning any issue in such award may be filed in the superior court for the judicial district of Hartford within thirty days following receipt of such award. Such motion to vacate or modify shall identify the specific issue or issues in the award which the court is being asked to vacate or modify. Any decision by the arbitrator on issues that are not subject to a motion to vacate or modify shall be final and binding upon the parties. The court, after hearing, may vacate or modify the arbitrator's decision concerning the award or any issue in the award only if the court finds that substantial rights of a party have been prejudiced because such award is: [(A)] (i) In violation of constitutional provisions; [(B)] (ii) in excess of the statutory authority of the arbitrator; [(C)] (iii) made upon unlawful procedure; [(D)] (iv) affected by other error of law; [(E)] (v) clearly erroneous in view of the reliable, probative and substantial evidence of the whole record; or [(F)] (vi) arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion.

Sec. 503. Subdivisions (10) to (15), inclusive, of subsection (d) of section 7-473c of the general statutes are repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2025):

(10) The decision of the panel and the resolved issues shall be [final and binding upon the municipal employer and the municipal employee organization except as provided in subdivision (12) of this subsection and, if such award is not rejected by the legislative body pursuant to review the decision on each such rejected issue. The review conducted pursuant to this subdivision shall be limited to the record and briefs of the hearing pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, the written explanation of the reasons for the vote and a written response by either party. In conducting such review, the arbitrators or single arbitrator shall be limited to consideration of the criteria set forth in subdivision (9) of this subsection. Such review shall be completed within twenty days of the appointment of the arbitrators or single arbitrator. The arbitrators or single arbitrator shall accept the last best offer of either of the parties.

(15) Within five days after the completion of such review the arbitrators or single arbitrator shall render a decision with respect to each rejected issue, which shall [be final and binding upon the municipal employer and the employee organization except that all again be submitted to the legislative body of the municipal employer within ten days of distribution of such decision and the legislative body may approve, reject or modify such award in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (12) of this subsection. A motion to vacate or modify such award may be made in accordance with sections 52-418 and 52-419. The decision of the arbitrators or single arbitrator shall be in writing and shall include specific reasons and standards used by each arbitrator in making a decision on each issue. The decision shall be filed with the parties. The reasonable costs of the arbitrators or single arbitrator and the cost of the transcript shall be paid by the legislative body. Where the legislative body of a municipal employer is the town meeting, the board of selectmen shall perform all of the duties and shall have all of the authority and responsibilities required of and granted to the legislative body under this subsection."
