AN ACT MAKING REVISIONS TO THE SECOND INJURY FUND

SUMMARY: By law, the Second Injury Fund (SIF), a state-run workers' compensation fund supported by an assessment on insured and self-insured employers based on the SIF's calculation of paid losses, deducts recoveries from tortfeasors when calculating its paid losses. This act specifies that this deduction is for actual recoveries from a third party that was liable in tort for an employee's injury.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Upon passage
