AN ACT ESTABLISHING THE CONNECTICUT-INDIA TRADE COMMISSION.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

- 1 Section 1. (NEW) (Effective from passage) (a) There is established a
- 2 Connecticut-India Trade Commission, which shall be part of the
- 3 Legislative Department.

- 4 (b) The commission shall consist of the following members:

- 5 (1) Two appointed by the speaker of the House of Representatives;

- 6 (2) Two appointed by the president pro tempore of the Senate;

- 7 (3) Two appointed by the majority leader of the House of
- 8 Representatives;

- 9 (4) Two appointed by the majority leader of the Senate;

- 10 (5) Two appointed by the minority leader of the House of

11 Representatives;

12 (6) Two appointed by the minority leader of the Senate;

13 (7) Two members of the joint standing committee of the General
14 Assembly having cognizance of matters relating to commerce, one of 15 whom shall be appointed by the Senate chairperson of such committee
16 and one of whom shall be appointed by the House chairperson of such 17 committee;

18 (8) The ranking members of the joint standing committee of the
19 General Assembly having cognizance of matters relating to commerce,
20 or their designees;

21 (9) Three persons appointed by the Governor;

22 (10) A representative of a public institution of higher education in the 23 state, who shall be appointed by the Governor;

24 (11) A representative of a chamber of commerce in the state, who shall 25 be appointed by the Governor;

26 (12) Two representatives of Indian or Indian-American communities
27 in the state, who shall be appointed by the Governor and shall not be 28 members of the same political party; and

29 (13) Any additional members, as deemed necessary by the 30 chairpersons of the joint standing committee of the General Assembly
31 having cognizance of matters relating to commerce.

32 (c) The members of the commission shall each have current or past
33 involvement in organizations that promote Indian affairs or are 34 interested in the well-being of trade relations between the state and 35 India.

36 (d) Any member of the commission appointed under subdivisions (1)
37 to (6), inclusive, and (13) of subsection (b) of this section may be a 38 member of the General Assembly.

39 (e) (1) All initial appointments to the commission shall be made not 40 later than October 1, 2026. Initial appointments made by the Governor,
41 the majority leader of the House of Representatives and the minority
42 leader of the House of Representatives shall terminate on September 30, 43 2029. Initial appointments made by the speaker of the House of 44 Representatives, the president pro tempore of the Senate, the majority
45 leader of the Senate and the minority leader of the Senate shall terminate
46 on September 30, 2030. The initial and subsequent terms of members 47 appointed by the chairpersons of the joint standing committee of the 48 General Assembly having cognizance of matters relating to commerce
49 shall be coterminous with the terms of the appointing authority for each 50 such member in accordance with the provisions of section 4-1a of the 51 general statutes.

52 (2) Appointed members of the commission shall serve for four-year
53 terms which shall commence on the date of appointment, except as 54 provided in subdivision (1) of this subsection. Members shall continue 55 to serve until their successors are appointed.

56 (f) The speaker of the House of Representatives and the president pro
57 tempore of the Senate shall select the chairpersons of the commission
58 from among the members of the commission. Such chairpersons shall 59 schedule the first meeting of the commission, which shall be held not 60 later than November 1, 2026.

61 (g) The administrative staff of the joint standing committee of the 62 General Assembly having cognizance of matters relating to government
63 oversight shall serve as administrative staff of the commission.

64 (h) Any vacancy shall be filled by the appointing authority. Any 65 vacancy occurring other than by expiration of term shall be filled for the 66 balance of the unexpired term.

67 (i) A majority of the commission shall constitute a quorum for the 68 transaction of any business.

69 (j) The members of the commission shall serve without

70 compensation, but shall, within the limits of available funds, be 71 reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of 72 their duties.

73 (k) The commission shall have the following powers and duties: (1)
74 To advance bilateral trade and investment between the state and India;
75 (2) to initiate joint action on policy issues of mutual interest to the state
76 and India; (3) to promote business and academic exchanges between the 77 state and India; (4) to encourage mutual economic support between the 78 state and India; (5) to encourage mutual investment in the infrastructure
79 of the state and India; (6) to address such other issues as determined by 80 the commission; (7) to obtain from any executive department, board, 81 commission or other agency of the state such assistance and data as are 82 necessary and available to carry out the purposes of this section; (8) to 83 accept any gift, donation or bequest for the purpose of performing the 84 duties described in this section; and (9) to perform such other acts as 85 may be necessary and appropriate to carry out the duties described in 86 this section.

87 (l) The commission shall meet quarterly, or as often as deemed 88 necessary by the chairpersons or a majority of the commission. Any 89 appointed member who fails to attend three consecutive meetings or 90 who fails to attend fifty per cent of all meetings held during any 91 calendar year shall be deemed to have resigned from the commission.

92 (m) Not later than February 1, 2028, and annually thereafter, the 93 commission shall submit a report, in accordance with the provisions of 94 section 11-4a of the general statutes, to the Governor, the Commissioner
95 of Economic and Community Development and the joint standing
96 committee of the General Assembly having cognizance of matters
97 relating to commerce on the activities of the commission during the 98 preceding year, which shall include, but need not be limited to, any
99 recommendations for policy changes and amendments to the general
100 statutes necessary to effectuate the purposes of the commission.

This act shall take effect as follows and shall amend the following sections:

Explanation

The bill establishes a Connecticut-India Trade Commission resulting in a potential minimal cost to the Office of Legislative Management. The bill specifies that commission members serve without compensation but can be reimbursed for necessary expenses resulting in a potential cost to the extent reimbursements occur.

The Out Years

The annualized ongoing fiscal impact identified above would continue into the future subject to inflation.

OLR Bill AnalysissSB 133AN ACT ESTABLISHING THE CONNECTICUT-INDIA TRADE COMMISSION.SUMMARY

This bill establishes a Connecticut-India Trade Commission within the Legislative Department to do the following between Connecticut and India:

1. advance bilateral trade and investment,
2. initiate joint action on policy issues of mutual interest,
3. promote business and academic exchanges,
4. encourage mutual economic support and infrastructure investment, and
5. address other issues the commission determines.

To carry out its duties, the bill also authorizes the commission to (1) get necessary help and data from any executive department, board, commission, or agency of the state; (2) perform necessary and appropriate acts; and (3) accept gifts, donations, or bequests.

Under the bill, the commission's membership includes 23 appointed members, and any other members the Commerce Committee chairs determine are necessary.

The bill requires the commission, starting by February 1, 2028, to annually report to the governor, Department of Economic and Community Development, and Commerce Committee on its activities during the prior year. At a minimum, the report must include recommendations for policy and legislative changes needed to carry out its duties.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Upon passage

MEMBERSHIP AND MEETINGS

Members

Under the bill, the commission includes the following 23 appointed members, and any additional members the Commerce Committee chairpersons determine are necessary:

1. two members each appointed by the six top legislative leaders;
2. two Commerce Committee members, one each appointed by the committee chairpersons;
3. two Commerce Committee ranking members, or their designees;
4. three members appointed by the governor;
5. one representative of a Connecticut public college or university, appointed by the governor;
6. one Connecticut chamber of commerce representative, appointed by the governor; and
7. two representatives of Indian or Indian-American communities in the state from different political parties, appointed by the governor.

Under the bill, commission members must be (1) currently or formerly involved in organizations promoting Indian affairs or (2) interested in trade relations between Connecticut and India.

Appointments

The bill requires appointing authorities to make their initial appointments by October 1, 2026, and fill any vacancies. Vacancies occurring other than by term expiration must be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term. All members, except those appointed by the governor, may be legislators.

Terms

Under the bill, members generally serve four-year terms, until their successors are appointed, except as follows:

1. initial gubernatorial and House majority and minority leader appointments terminate on September 30, 2029;
2. initial House speaker, Senate president pro tempore, and Senate majority and minority leader appointments terminate on September 30, 2030; and
3. initial and subsequent Commerce Committee chairperson appointments are coterminous with appointing committee chairperson.

Under the bill, members serve without compensation but are reimbursed, within available funds, for necessary expenses incurred performing their duties.

Leadership and Meetings

The bill requires the House speaker and Senate president pro tempore to select the commission's chairpersons from among its members. The chairpersons must schedule and hold the commission's first meeting by November 1, 2026.

Under the bill, the commission must meet quarterly or as often as the chairpersons or a majority of the members deem necessary. Members who miss three consecutive meetings or 50% of the meetings in a calendar year are deemed to have resigned. A majority of members is a quorum for conducting business.

The bill requires the Government Oversight Committee's administrative staff to serve in this capacity for the commission.
