

Substitute Senate Bill No. 340

Public Act No. 26-23

AN ACT CONCERNING CONTINUING REAL ESTATE EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS, PUBLIC MARKETING OF CERTAIN REAL ESTATE LISTINGS AND REVISING THE TITLE OF A REAL ESTATE SALESPERSON TO A REAL ESTATE AGENT.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

Section 1. Section 20-319 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2026):

(a) The commission shall authorize the department to issue a two-year renewal license to any applicant who possesses the qualifications specified in, and has otherwise complied with the provisions of, this chapter and any regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter. The commission shall authorize the department to issue a two-year renewal of a real estate broker's license to any business entity licensed pursuant to subsection (b) of section 20-312, provided such business entity: (1) Was so licensed as of September 30, 2005, notwithstanding the fact such business entity does not meet the requirements for publicly traded corporations required by subdivision (5) of subsection (b) of section 20-312, or (2) changes such business entity's designated broker pursuant to subsection (c) of section 20-312.

(b) There are hereby established two-year renewal licenses to be issued by the department to real estate licensees. Each real estate licensee who files an application with the department seeking a two-year renewal license shall fulfill a continuing education requirement. Each applicant for a two-year renewal license shall, in addition to the other requirements imposed by the provisions of this chapter, submit to the commission or department proof that such applicant is in compliance with the continuing education requirements established in this section. Each real estate licensee shall pay a biennial eight-dollar continuing education processing fee to cover the administrative costs associated with reviewing and auditing continuing education submissions. The continuing education requirement for real estate licensees may be satisfied by successful completion of any of the following during the two-year period preceding a renewal: (1) A course or courses of not less than two hours per course, approved by the commission or department, of continuing education in current real estate practices and licensing laws, including, but not limited to, practices and laws concerning common interest communities, consisting of not less than twelve hours of classroom study; or (2) a written examination prepared and administered by either the department, or by a national testing service approved by the department, which demonstrates a knowledge of current real estate practices and licensing laws; or (3) equivalent continuing educational experience or study as determined by regulations adopted pursuant to subsection (d) of this section. An applicant for examination under subdivision (2) of this subsection shall pay the required examination fee to the national testing service, if administered by such testing service, or to the department, if administered by the department.

(c) If the commission or department refuses to grant a two-year renewal license, the licensee or applicant, upon written notice received as provided for in this chapter, may have recourse to any of the remedies provided by sections 20-314, as amended by this act, and 20-322.

(d) The Commissioner of Consumer Protection, in consultation with the commission, shall adopt regulations, in accordance with chapter 54, to establish continuing education requirements. Such regulations shall include, but not be limited to: (1) Specifications for meeting equivalent continuing educational experience or study; and (2) exceptions from continuous education requirements for reasons of health or instances of individual hardship.

(e) If a real estate licensee fails to satisfy the continuing education requirements established pursuant to this section for any two-year license period, the real estate licensee shall pay to the department a fee in the amount of:

(1) Three hundred fifteen dollars if such licensee reports to the department, in a form and manner prescribed by the department, that such real estate licensee failed to satisfy such continuing education requirements during such license period but completed such continuing education requirements not later than two months after such license period expired; or

(2) Six hundred twenty-five dollars if such licensee reports to the department, in a form and manner prescribed by the department, that such real estate licensee failed to satisfy such continuing education requirements during such license period but completed such continuing education requirements more than two months after such license period expired but not later than four months after such license period expired.

Sec. 2. Subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of section 8-169aa of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(2) "Actively marketed" means (A) a sign has been placed on a property advertising sale of such property, (B) the owner of such property has (i) hired a real estate broker or [salesperson] agent, licensed pursuant to section 20-312, as amended by this act, to include the property in the multiple listing service or to otherwise market the property, (ii) placed advertisements weekly, or more frequently, in print or electronic media, or (iii) distributed printed advertisements, and (C) such sign contains accurate contact information for such owner or real estate broker or [salesperson] agent;

Sec. 3. Subsection (b) of section 10a-123 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(b) The purposes, objectives and duties of said center shall be as follows: (1) To conduct studies in real estate and urban economics and to publish and disseminate the findings and results of such studies; (2) to assist the teaching program in real estate offered by The University of Connecticut; (3) to supply material to the Connecticut Real Estate Commission for the preparation by it of examinations for real estate [salespersons] agents and brokers, if requested to do so by the commission; (4) to develop and from time to time revise and update materials for use in the extension courses in real estate offered by The University of Connecticut; (5) to assist the Connecticut Real Estate Commission in developing standards for the accreditation of technical education and career schools and other teaching agencies giving courses in the field of real estate and standards for the approval of courses in the field of real estate, as and when requested to do so by the commission.

Sec. 5. Subsection (b) of section 20-311a of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(b) The commission shall consist of eight persons, electors of the state, appointed by the Governor. Three of the members shall be at the time of appointment licensed real estate brokers, two of the members shall be at the time of appointment licensed real estate [salespersons] agents and three of the members shall be public members. Not more than a bare majority of the commission shall be members of the same political party and there shall be at least one member from each congressional district.

Sec. 6. Subsection (e) of section 20-312 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January

Substitute Senate Bill No. 340

1, 2027):

(e) Each team shall register, on a form and in a manner prescribed by the Commissioner of Consumer Protection, with the department. Each initial registration shall be valid for a period of one year and be subject to renewal for additional one-year periods. Each team shall pay to the department an initial registration fee of five hundred sixty-five dollars when the team files its initial registration, and a registration renewal fee of three hundred seventy-five dollars when the team files each registration renewal, pursuant to this subparagraph. Each team shall include in each registration form that the team files with the department pursuant to this subsection:

(1) Such team's team name, which shall:

(A) Include the full name of at least one licensed real estate broker or real estate [salesperson] agent who is part of such team or be immediately followed by "at/of" [full name of the team's supervising licensee];

(B) Not include the name of any individual who is not a licensed real estate broker or real estate [salesperson] agent; and

(C) With the exception of "team", not include any abbreviation, term or phrase, including, but not limited to, "associates", "company", "corporation", "group", "LLC", "real estate" or "realty", that implies that such team is a business entity;

(2) The name of, and contact information for, such team's supervising licensee, who shall serve as such team's primary contact, ensure that such team complies with all applicable laws and regulations concerning team advertisements and ensure that such team timely files accurate registration forms and registration updates with the department pursuant to this subsection; and

(3) The name and contact information for each real estate broker or real estate [salesperson] agent who is part of such team.

Sec. 7. Section 20-312a of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

In any action brought by a third party against a real estate [salesperson] agent affiliated with a real estate broker as an independent contractor, such broker shall be liable to the same extent as if such affiliate had been employed as a real estate [salesperson] agent by such broker.

Sec. 8. Subsection (b) of section 20-312c of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(b) Each supervising licensee shall be responsible for the actions of the associate brokers who are under such supervising licensee's control and supervision to the same extent that such supervising licensee would be responsible for such associate brokers if such associate brokers were real estate [salespersons] agents affiliated with such supervising licensee.

Sec. 9. Section 20-314 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(a) Licenses shall be granted under this chapter only to persons who bear a good reputation for honesty, truthfulness and fair dealing and who are competent to transact the business of a real estate broker or real estate [salesperson] agent in such manner as to safeguard the interests of the public.

(b) Each application for a license or for a renewal thereof shall be made in writing, on such forms and in such manner as is prescribed by the department.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 340

(c) In order to determine the competency of any applicant for a real estate licensee's license, the commission or Commissioner of Consumer Protection shall, on payment of an application fee of one hundred twenty dollars by an applicant for a real estate broker's license or an application fee of eighty dollars by an applicant for a real estate [salesperson's] agent's license, subject such applicant to personal written examination as to the applicant's competency to act as a real estate broker or real estate [salesperson] agent, as the case may be. Each examination shall be prepared by the department or by a national testing service designated by the commissioner and shall be administered to applicants by the department or by such testing service at such times and places as the commissioner may deem necessary. The commission or commissioner may waive the uniform portion of the written examination requirement in the case of an applicant who has taken the national testing service examination in another state within two years from the date of application and has received a score deemed satisfactory by the commission or commissioner. The commissioner shall adopt regulations, in accordance with chapter 54, establishing passing scores for examinations. In addition to such application fee, applicants taking the examination administered by a national testing service shall be required to pay directly to such testing service an examination fee covering the cost of such examination. Each payment of such application fee shall entitle the applicant to take such examination within the one-year period from the date of payment.

(d) (1) Each applicant shall, before being admitted to such examination, prove to the satisfaction of the commission or the Commissioner of Consumer Protection that the applicant (A) (i) has been actively engaged as a licensed real estate [salesperson] agent under the supervision of a supervising licensee, who is licensed in this state, for a minimum period of three years immediately preceding the date the applicant filed such applicant's application, during which period such [salesperson] agent engaged in the real estate business for at least one thousand five hundred hours and such supervising licensee, or such supervising licensee's authorized representative, has certified the accuracy of a record of such applicant's active engagement on a form provided by such applicant to such supervising licensee or authorized representative, (ii) has successfully completed a course approved by the commission or commissioner in real estate principles and practices of at least sixty classroom hours of study, (iii) has successfully completed a course approved by the commission or commissioner in real estate legal compliance consisting of at least fifteen classroom hours of study, (iv) has successfully completed a course approved by the commission or commissioner in real estate brokerage principles and practices consisting of at least fifteen classroom hours, (v) has successfully completed two elective courses, each consisting of fifteen classroom hours of study, as prescribed by the commission or commissioner, and (vi) has represented a seller, buyer, lessor or lessee in at least four real estate transactions that closed during the three years immediately preceding the date on which such applicant filed such applicant's application, or (B) has equivalent experience or education as determined by the commission or commissioner. Each supervising licensee, or authorized representative of such supervising licensee, shall certify the accuracy or inaccuracy of a record provided by an applicant to such supervising licensee or authorized representative under subparagraph (A)(i) of this subdivision not later than ninety days after such applicant provides such record to such supervising licensee or authorized representative.

(2) The commission or the commissioner shall waive the elective courses under subparagraph (A)(v) of subdivision (1) of this subsection if the applicant has successfully completed at least twenty real estate transactions within five years immediately preceding the date of application.

(3) Each applicant for a real estate [salesperson's] agent's license shall, before being admitted to such examination, prove to the satisfaction of the commission or the commissioner that the applicant (A) has successfully completed a course approved by the commission or commissioner in real estate principles and practices consisting of at least sixty classroom hours of study, or (B) has equivalent experience or education as determined by the commission or commissioner.

(e) The provisions of subsections (c) and (d) of this section shall not apply to any renewal of a real estate broker's license, or a real estate [salesperson's] agent's license issued prior to October 1, 1973.

(f) All licenses issued under the provisions of this chapter shall expire biennially. At the time of application for a real estate broker's license, there shall be paid to the department, for each individual applicant and for each business entity, the sum of one thousand one hundred thirty dollars, and for the biennial renewal thereof, the sum of seven hundred fifty dollars, except that for licenses expiring on March 31, 2022, a prorated renewal fee shall be charged to reflect the fact that the March 2022, renewal shall expire on November 30, 2023. At the time of application for a real estate [salesperson's] agent's license, there shall be paid to the department five hundred seventy dollars and for the biennial renewal thereof the sum of five hundred seventy dollars. Six dollars of each such biennial renewal fee shall be payable to the Real Estate Guaranty Fund established pursuant to section 20-324a. A real estate broker's license issued to any business entity shall entitle the designated broker, upon compliance with the terms of this chapter, but without the payment of any further fee, to perform all of the acts of a real estate broker under this chapter on behalf of such business entity. Any license which expires and is not renewed on or before the ninetieth day following the expiration date of such license may be reinstated by the commission or department, in the commission's or department's discretion, provided such license has expired for less than three years and the former licensee (1) attests that such former licensee did not work in this state in the occupation or profession in which such former licensee was licensed while such former licensee's license was lapsed, (2) pays the renewal fee due for such license for the year in which such license is reinstated, and (3) completes any continuing education required for such license for the year preceding such reinstatement. If an applicant for reinstatement worked in this state in the occupation or profession in which such applicant was formerly licensed while such license was lapsed, the applicant shall pay all license and late fees due and owing for the lapse period and demonstrate that such applicant has completed all continuing education required for such license for the year preceding such reinstatement. Such late fees shall be assessed for each real estate broker's license in the amount of three hundred seventy-five dollars and for each real estate [salesperson's] agent's license in the amount of two hundred eighty-five dollars for each year or fraction thereof from the date of expiration of the previous license to the date of payment for reinstatement. If a license has lapsed for at least three years, the former licensee is ineligible for reinstatement under this subsection and may apply for a new license. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this subsection, a former licensee whose license expired after such former licensee entered military service shall be reinstated without payment of any fee if an application for reinstatement is filed with the commission or department before the third anniversary of such expiration date, and the former licensee provides evidence that is sufficient to demonstrate to the commission or department that such former licensee completed at least six hours of continuing education for such license, including, but not limited to, the mandatory continuing education required for such license, during the calendar year preceding the date on which such application for reinstatement is filed. Any such reinstated broker's license shall expire on the next succeeding November thirtieth. Any such reinstated real estate [salesperson's] agent's license shall expire on the next succeeding May thirty-first.

(g) Following a denial of a license or license renewal application filed under this section, the department shall send a notice to the applicant who filed such application disclosing such denial and that such applicant may request a hearing by submitting to the Commissioner of Consumer Protection a written hearing request not later than thirty days after the date such denial notice was sent to such applicant. If the applicant requests a hearing during such thirty-day period, the department shall send a notice to such applicant disclosing the grounds for such denial and conduct a hearing concerning such denial in accordance with the provisions of chapter 54. If the commissioner's denial is sustained after such hearing, the applicant may file a new application for such license or license renewal not sooner than one year after the date on which such denial was sustained.

Sec. 10. Subsection (a) of section 20-319a of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(a) Each licensed real estate [salesperson] agent or associate broker who transfers such real estate [salesperson's] agent's or associate broker's affiliation with a broker or property owner shall register such transfer with, and pay a registration fee of twenty-five dollars to, the department.

Sec. 11. Section 20-324l of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

No leasing agent shall engage in the real estate business except for leasing or renting real property that is exclusively used for residential occupancy. Leasing agents shall not engage in any activity that requires a real estate broker's or real estate [salesperson's] agent's license, including, but not limited to, selling, offering, listing, negotiating, referring or showing for sale, entering into lease-to-own agreements or leasing commercial real estate. A leasing agent shall be employed by a development owner. A leasing agent shall not offer leasing services for any person that is not a development owner. No leasing agent shall engage in the real estate business concerning any property other than on behalf of the owner of record of a multiunit development that employs such leasing agent. A leasing agent shall obtain a written contract from the development owner to demonstrate such employment prior to engaging in any leasing activity at such development. Such contract shall be made available to the department, and produced by the leasing agent in an electronic form, upon a request by the department for such contract.

Sec. 12. Subsection (q) of section 20-325a of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(q) The provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of this section shall not apply to any (1) person excepted from the provisions of this chapter by section 20-329 with respect to any acts performed by the person which are included in such exception; or (2) real estate broker or real estate [salesperson] agent who has provided services to the federal government, any political subdivision thereof, or any corporation, institution or quasi-governmental agency chartered by the federal government.

Sec. 13. Subsection (b) of section 20-325c of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(b) Any disclosure made pursuant to subsection (a) of this section shall be made to and acknowledged by the buyer prior to the time the buyer signs a contract with the real estate licensee for mortgage brokering services. Such disclosure shall include the following notice printed in at least ten-point boldface capital letters:

I UNDERSTAND THAT THE REAL ESTATE BROKER OR

Substitute Senate Bill No. 340

[SALESPERSON] AGENT IN THIS TRANSACTION HAS OFFERED TO ASSIST ME IN FINDING A MORTGAGE LOAN. ADDITIONALLY, I UNDERSTAND THAT THIS REAL ESTATE BROKER OR [SALESPERSON] AGENT DOES NOT REPRESENT ANY PARTICULAR MORTGAGE LENDER AND WILL ATTEMPT TO OBTAIN THE BEST TERMS AVAILABLE WITHIN THE MORTGAGE LOAN MARKET FOR MY SPECIFIC HOME FINANCING NEEDS. IF THE REAL ESTATE BROKER OR [SALESPERSON] AGENT DOES NOT FULFILL [HIS] SUCH BROKER'S OR AGENT'S FIDUCIARY OBLIGATION I MAY FILE A COMPLAINT WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF BANKING. I ALSO UNDERSTAND THAT I MAY ATTEMPT TO FIND A MORTGAGE LOAN TO FINANCE THE PURCHASE OF MY HOME WITHOUT THE ASSISTANCE OF THE REAL ESTATE BROKER OR [SALESPERSON] AGENT IN WHICH CASE I WILL NOT BE OBLIGATED TO PAY A FEE TO THE REAL ESTATE BROKER OR [SALESPERSON] AGENT.

Sec. 14. Section 20-325l of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(a) An out-of-state broker may perform acts with respect to a commercial real estate transaction that require a license under this chapter, provided the out-of-state broker:

(1) Works in cooperation with a licensed broker, whether in a cobrokerage, referral or other cooperative agreement or arrangement;

(2) Enters into a written agreement with a licensed broker that includes the terms of cooperation and any compensation to be paid by the licensed broker and a statement that the out-of-state broker and the out-of-state broker's agents will comply with the laws of this state;

(3) Provides the licensed broker a copy of the out-of-state broker's license or other proof of licensure from the states where the out-of-state

broker maintains a license as a real estate broker;

(4) Deposits all escrow funds, security deposits, and other money received pursuant to the commercial real estate transaction to be held as provided in section 20-324k unless the agreement required in subdivision (2) of this subsection specifies otherwise;

(5) Complies with the laws of this state with respect to the transaction; and

(6) Is credentialled as a real estate broker in another state.

(b) An out-of-state [salesperson] agent may perform acts with respect to a commercial real estate transaction that require a license as a real estate [salesperson] agent under this chapter, provided the out-of-state [salesperson] agent complies with the laws of this state with respect to the transaction and:

(1) Works under the direct supervision of an out-of-state broker who meets the requirements set forth in subdivisions (1), (5) and (6) of subsection (a) of this section; and

(2) Provides the licensed broker who is working in cooperation with the out-of-state broker a copy of the out-of-state [salesperson's] agent's license or other proof of licensure from the states where the out-of-state [salesperson] agent maintains a license as a real estate [salesperson] agent.

(c) Any out-of-state broker or out-of-state [salesperson] agent licensed in a state that has no distinction between a real estate broker license and a real estate [salesperson] agent license shall be subject to the requirements of subsection (a) of this section with regard to any commercial real estate transaction in this state.

(d) Each out-of-state broker or out-of-state [salesperson] agent that advertises for sale commercial real estate pursuant to this section shall include in any advertising material the name of the licensed broker with whom the out-of-state broker has a written agreement pursuant to subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of this section. Nothing in this section shall permit an out-of-state broker or out-of-state [salesperson] agent to accompany a prospective buyer at the site of commercial real estate pursuant to a real estate transaction in this state.

(e) An out-of-state real estate licensee may receive compensation for referring to a real estate licensee in this state a prospective party to a real estate transaction in this state.

Sec. 15. Section 20-327b of the 2026 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, each person who offers residential property in the state for sale, exchange or for lease with option to buy, shall provide a written residential condition report or reports to the prospective purchaser at any time prior to the prospective purchaser's execution of any binder, contract to purchase, option or lease containing a purchase option. A photocopy, duplicate original, facsimile transmission or other exact reproduction or duplicate of the written residential condition report or reports containing the prospective purchaser's written receipt shall be attached to any written offer, binder or contract to purchase. A photocopy, duplicate original, facsimile transmission or other exact reproduction or duplicate of the written residential condition report or reports containing the signatures of both seller and purchaser shall be attached to any agreement to purchase the property.

(b) The following shall be exempt from the provisions of this section:
(1) Any transfer from one or more co-owners solely to one or more of the co-owners; (2) transfers made to the spouse, mother, father, brother, sister, child, grandparent or grandchild of the transferor where no consideration is paid; (3) transfers of newly-constructed residential real property for which an implied warranty is provided under chapter 827; (4) transfers made by executors, administrators, trustees or conservators; (5) transfers by the federal government, any political subdivision thereof or any corporation, institution or quasi-governmental agency chartered by the federal government; (6) transfers by this state; (7) except as provided in subsections (g) and (h) of this section, transfers by any political subdivision of this state; (8) transfers of property which was the subject of a contract or option entered into prior to January 1, 1996; and (9) except as provided in subsections (g) and (h) of this section, any transfer of property acquired by a judgment of strict foreclosure or by foreclosure by sale or by a deed in lieu of foreclosure.

(c) The provisions of this section shall apply only to transfers by sale, exchange or lease with option to buy, of residential real property consisting of not less than one nor more than four dwelling units which shall include cooperatives and condominiums, and shall apply to all transfers, with or without the assistance of a licensed real estate broker or [salesperson] agent, as defined in section 20-311, as amended by this act.

(d) The Commissioner of Consumer Protection shall, within available appropriations, prescribe the written residential condition reports required by this section and sections 20-327c to 20-327e, inclusive. The written residential condition reports shall be based upon templates that the commissioner shall prescribe. Such templates shall: Fit on pages being not more than eight and one-half inches in height and eleven inches in width, with type size no smaller than nine-point type, other than checkboxes or section headers, which may be in a smaller size; include the address of the subject property on each page; include page numbers on each page; include section headings in bold type and

This report in no way relieves a real estate broker of the broker's obligation under the provisions of section 20-328-5a of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies to disclose any material facts. Failure to do so could result in punitive action taken against the broker, such as fines, suspension or revocation of license.

(B) STATEMENTS NOT TO CONSTITUTE A WARRANTY

Any representations made by the seller on the written residential condition report shall not constitute a warranty to the buyer.

(C) NATURE OF REPORT

This Residential Property Condition Report is not a substitute for inspections, tests and other methods of determining the physical condition of property.

(D) INFORMATION ON THE RESIDENCE OF CONVICTED FELONS

Information concerning the residence address of a person convicted of a crime may be available from law enforcement agencies or the Department of Public Safety.

(E) BUILDING PERMITS AND CERTIFICATES OF OCCUPANCY

Prospective buyers should consult with the municipal building official in the municipality in which the property is located to confirm that building permits and certificates of occupancy have been issued for work on the property.

(F) HOME INSPECTION

Buyers should have the property inspected by a licensed home inspector.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 340

(G) CONCRETE FOUNDATION

Prospective buyers may have a concrete foundation inspected by a licensed professional engineer who is a structural engineer for deterioration of the foundation due to the presence of pyrrhotite.

(H) DAM

Information concerning the registration and categorization of a dam on the property may be obtained from the Department of Energy and Environmental Protection.

(I) FLOOD INSURANCE, FLOOD MAPS AND FLOOD RISK

Federal law requires owners to obtain and maintain flood insurance for properties financed with a federally regulated or insured mortgage in a Special Flood Hazard Area, also known as a high-risk zone on FEMA's flood insurance rate maps. In addition, for properties that have previously received federal disaster assistance, owners are required to obtain and maintain flood insurance as a condition to be eligible for future assistance. This requirement affixes to the property and applies to all future owners. FEMA flood maps are not designed, nor intended to be, a reliable tool for buyers to assess a property's flood risk. A property does not have to be near water or in a flood zone to flood. For additional information on obtaining important flood insurance, contact an insurance professional.

Information concerning the registration and categorization of a dam on the property may be obtained from the Department of Energy and Environmental Protection.

Sec. 21. Subparagraph (A) of subdivision (4) of subsection (b) of section 20-329eee of the 2026 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(A) The following language:

"Notice to Sellers: What to Know About Wholesale Transactions

If you are considering selling your property through a wholesale transaction, please be aware of the following:

1. The real estate wholesaler may not be the person or entity purchasing your property, and you may be granting them the right to sell your property to another person or entity.

2. During the contract period, the real estate wholesaler may market your property for sale.

3. A real estate wholesaler may reasonably expect or intend to make a profit, or receive compensation through an assignment fee, from selling, assigning or transferring their interest in the real estate wholesale contract.

4. As the seller, the terms of your agreement with a real estate wholesaler may provide the real estate wholesaler with the ability to make decisions to reject or accept an offer to purchase your property without your knowledge or consent during the term of the real estate wholesale contract.

5. The assessed value of a property, as assessed by a town, is not the same as the fair market value of the property, and may be significantly less than the fair market value of the property.

6. You are advised and have the right to investigate the fair market value of your property before signing a real estate wholesale contract. The sale price of your property is negotiable.

7. You may, in your discretion and at your expense, have an attorney or other advisor review the terms of a real estate wholesale contract, or have an appraiser assess the value of your property.

8. You may cancel a real estate wholesale contract during the three-business-day period beginning when you enter into the contract without providing any reason or incurring any penalty or obligation, except to return any deposit the real estate wholesaler paid to you.

9. If the real estate wholesaler is a real estate broker or a real estate [salesperson] agent, the real estate wholesaler must disclose to you who he or she represents and what fiduciary duties, if any, are owed to you in the wholesale transaction.

10. As the seller, you are required to provide certain property condition and lead paint disclosures under state and federal law. These disclosures must be completed as part of the transaction.

11. A real estate wholesale contract may not have a closing date that is more than ninety days after all parties sign the contract. However, you may agree to extend the ninety-day period, provided the extension is in writing and signed by you and the real estate wholesaler. If you do not extend the contract, the contract will automatically terminate at the end of the ninety-day period.

Please read the terms in the real estate wholesale contract to understand all of your rights and obligations thereunder, including:

(A) How prospective purchasers of your property may have access to your property for showings, inspections or for other transactional details;

(B) What additional costs you may be charged at the time of closing, such as a seller's conveyance tax or other closing-related fees; and

(C) If you have any right to cancel the contract prior to closing in addition to your right to cancel the contract during the three-business-day period beginning when you enter into the contract.

All sellers in real estate transactions should consult with appropriate professionals to understand their rights and obligations and the various implications of a real estate transaction."

Sec. 22. Subsection (a) of section 20-417j of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(a) Sections 20-417a to 20-417i, inclusive, do not apply to any of the following persons or organizations: (1) Any person holding a current license as a real estate broker or [salesperson] agent issued pursuant to chapter 392, provided such person engages only in work for which such person is licensed under chapter 392; (2) any person licensed or otherwise authorized under chapter 412 to sell or place a mobile manufactured home, as defined in section 21-64, upon a mobile manufactured home park or mobile manufactured space or lot, both as defined in section 21-64, provided such person engages only in work for which such person is licensed or otherwise authorized under chapter 412; (3) any other person holding a professional or occupational license, registration or certificate issued pursuant to the general statutes, provided such person engages only in the work for which such person is licensed, registered or certified; and (4) any new home construction contractor who enters into one or more new home construction contracts related to the same new home when such contract or contracts in the aggregate with respect to that home has a total price for work or services that is less than three thousand five hundred dollars.

Sec. 23. Section 20-526 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

The provisions of sections 20-500 to 20-528, inclusive, concerning the certification or provisional licensing of real estate appraisers shall not apply to (1) any person under contract with a municipality who performs a revaluation of real estate for assessment purposes pursuant to section 12-62, and (2) any licensed real estate broker or real estate [salesperson] agent who estimates the value of real estate as part of a market analysis performed for the owner of the real estate or a designee of the owner, on such terms as may be agreed upon between such owner or the owner's designee and the real estate broker or real estate [salesperson] agent, for the purpose of (A) a prospective listing or sale of such real estate, (B) providing information to the seller or landlord under a listing agreement, or (C) providing information to a prospective buyer or tenant under a buyer or tenant agency agreement, provided such estimate of value shall not be referred to or be construed as an appraisal. If such owner executes a listing contract with the real estate broker or real estate [salesperson] agent who so estimated the value of the real estate for the sale of the real estate and such real estate contains any building or other structure, occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than four families, then such owner shall be credited against any compensation the owner pays on account of such listing contract for any fee paid by the owner for such estimate of value.

Sec. 24. Subparagraph (K) of subdivision (5) of subsection (a) of section 31-222 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(K) Service performed by an individual as an insurance agent, other than an industrial life insurance agent, and service performed by an individual as a real estate [salesperson] agent, if all such service is performed for remuneration solely by way of commission;

Sec. 25. Subsection (c) of section 42-103gg of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(c) Any sales agent who offers a time share interest created under this section shall be licensed as a real estate broker or real estate [salesperson] agent as set forth in section 20-312, as amended by this act, unless exempt from licensure under chapter 392. The following need not be licensed pursuant to section 20-312, as amended by this act: (1) An exchange company that is exchanging time share periods, or (2) a person who only distributes literature pertaining to a time share or advertises a time share, provided a sales agent or a real estate broker or real estate [salesperson] agent licensed under section 20-312, as amended by this act, transacts the sale of such time share interest.

Sec. 26. Subdivision (1) of subsection (c) of section 42-103bbb of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(1) Is a licensed real estate [salesperson] agent in this state who resells or offers to resell time share interests in a time share plan as [an] a sales agent for a developer who is registered under sections 42-103cc to 42-103aaa, inclusive, provided such [salesperson] agent (A) delivers all disclosures required of a developer under sections 42-103cc to 42-103aaa, inclusive, or (B) complies with the provisions of section 42-103ccc;

Sec. 27. Subsection (d) of section 42-484 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(d) Nothing in sections 42-482 and 42-483 and this section shall be construed to apply to any person who holds a real estate [salesperson's] agent's license and who has a claim for payment of a real estate commission or compensation against the real estate broker with whom such real estate [salesperson] agent is affiliated.

Sec. 28. Subparagraph (B) of subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of section 47-17a of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective January 1, 2027):

(B) "Private transfer fee" does not include:

(i) Any consideration payable by a grantee to a grantor for the conveyance of an interest in real property located in this state, including any subsequent consideration payable by such grantee for such real property based on subsequent appreciation, development or sale of such real property, provided such subsequent consideration is payable on a one-time basis and the obligation to pay such consideration does not bind successors in title to such real property. For purposes of this subparagraph, "real property" includes a mineral estate, as defined in section 47-33o;

(ii) Any commission payable to a real estate broker or a real estate [salesperson] agent for the sale of real property located in this state pursuant to a contract or agreement between such broker or [salesperson] agent and a grantee or grantor, including any subsequent commission payable by such grantee or grantor for such real property based on subsequent appreciation, development or sale of such real property;

(iii) Any interest, fee, charge or other amount payable by a borrower to a lender pursuant to a loan secured by a mortgage against real property located in this state, including any fee payable to such lender for consenting to an assumption of such loan or conveyance of such real property subject to such mortgage, any fee or charge payable to such lender for an estoppel letter or certificate issued by such lender, and any shared appreciation interest, profit participation or other consideration payable to the lender in connection with such loan;

Sec. 32. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2026) (a) As used in this section:

(1) "Public marketing" means any promotion or distribution of information through any medium that is reasonably accessible to prospective buyers or tenants, real estate licensees and the general public that provides open and nondiscriminatory access to available residential real property for sale or lease, such as (A) the display of real estate listings on a publicly accessible Internet web site or digital platform; (B) promotion through any social media platform; (C) distribution through electronic mail to more than one recipient at a time; (D) signage directing consumers to a real estate broker; (E) publication on a real estate broker's or brokerage Internet web site, application or other digital platform, or inclusion on a private network established among not less than two real estate brokerage agencies or franchisees; or (F) digital advertisement intended for public distribution.

(2) "Multiple listing service" means any cooperative information exchange system, operated by, or on behalf of, licensed real estate brokers, that: (A) Aggregates and disseminates information concerning real estate listings among participating real estate brokers on a broad and nondiscriminatory basis, and is not limited to (i) a single brokerage or affiliated group of brokerages, or (ii) an exclusionary group of participating real estate brokers; (B) is governed by standardized rules; (C) provides for the distribution of such real estate listing information to publicly accessible real estate marketplaces and Internet web sites contemporaneously with, and not later than, the first instance of public marketing of any such real estate listing; and (D) is not established or operated for the purpose of limiting the visibility or distribution of real estate listings.

Substitute Senate Bill No. 340

(3) "Real estate agent", "real estate broker" and "residential real property" have the same meanings as provided in section 20-311 of the general statutes, as amended by this act.

(b) Any real estate broker or real estate agent representing a seller or landlord in a real estate transaction involving such seller's or landlord's residential property shall: (1) Furnish all property information authorized for disclosure by such seller or landlord, and any other information or material facts such real estate broker or real estate agent representing such seller or landlord is obligated to disclose to any prospective buyer or tenant on an equal and nondiscriminatory basis, through a real estate broker or real estate agent, if such prospective buyer or tenant is represented, or directly, if such prospective buyer or tenant is unrepresented; (2) respond to inquiries from any prospective buyer or tenant on an equal and nondiscriminatory basis, through a real estate broker or real estate agent if such prospective buyer or tenant is represented, or directly, if such prospective buyer or tenant is unrepresented, or designate a specific individual responsible for responses to any such inquiry; and (3) make the residential property available for in-person or virtual showings to any prospective buyer or tenant on an equal and nondiscriminatory basis, through a real estate broker or real estate agent if such prospective buyer or tenant is represented, or directly, if such prospective buyer or tenant is unrepresented.

(c) (1) Except as provided in subsection (d) of this section, any real estate broker or real estate agent representing a seller or landlord in a real estate transaction involving such seller's or landlord's residential property shall, concurrently with, or prior to, the first instance of public marketing, make such residential property available to the general public on a fair, nondiscriminatory and publicly accessible listing platform that is reasonably designed to generate broad public exposure to prospective buyers or tenants. Such requirement may be satisfied through an active listing on (A) at least one multiple listing service operating in this state, (B) a publicly accessible Internet listing platform, or (C) any other electronic listing platform that provides unrestricted public access to listing information.

(2) No such real estate broker or real estate agent shall satisfy the requirements of subparagraph (B) or (C) of subdivision (1) of this subsection through the use of any listing platform, if access to such listing platform is limited or the platform (A) requires an invitation, password or other credentials to access such listing platform, or (B) is designed primarily for internal use by a single brokerage or affiliated group.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to: (1) Require a seller or landlord of residential property to publicly market and submit such residential property for active listing on at least one multiple listing services operating in this state; (2) prohibit the use of private listings, pocket listings or office-exclusive listings, provided any such listing is not publicly marketed; (3) restrict a seller of residential property from directing a real estate broker or real estate agent to market such property privately or to a limited group of prospective buyers, provided any such direction complies with all state and federal laws; (4) restrict an individual agent at a brokerage to market to another agent at a different brokerage when marketing a private listing or pocket listing, provided any such private listing or pocket listing is not publicly marketed; or (5) restrict the real estate broker or real estate agent representing the seller or landlord of residential property in a real estate transaction involving such seller's or landlord's residential property from furnishing property information to other real estate brokers or real estate agents controlled and supervised by the same supervising licensee in the same office.

(e) A Seller/Landlord Opt-Out of Real Estate Public Marketing form shall be executed at such time the listing agreement is executed upon the request of a seller or landlord of residential property to opt-out of
