HB 5305

AN ACT CONCERNING ADULT DAY CENTER TRANSPORTATION.

SUMMARY

Starting July 1, 2026, this bill requires the Department of Social Services (DSS) commissioner to increase the fee the department pays for adult day care services by 10% over the previous fiscal year to cover providers' transportation costs.

Beginning July 1, 2027, the bill also requires the commissioner to annually increase the fee for adult day care services by, at minimum, any cost-of-living increases reflected in the consumer price index. Existing law allows, but does not require, the commissioner to annually increase the fee schedule based on increases in service costs.
