Explanation

The amendment strikes the underlying bill and its associated fiscal impact resulting in the following impact.

The amendment requires a forensic examination for a massive breach of security¹ and allows the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) to issue a civil penalty of up to $250,000 for noncompliance, resulting in a potential revenue gain to the General Fund to the extent violations occur.

The amendment also makes violations an unfair trade practice enforced by the OAG resulting in no fiscal impact because the OAG has the resources and expertise to meet the requirements of the amendment.

¹The amendment requires the person or entity who experiences a massive breach of security to pay for a third-party to conduct a forensic examination.
