Explanation

The amendment strikes the bill as amended and its associated impacts.

The amendment potentially results in lower reimbursement rates to providers including the UConn Health Center. To the extent this occurs, it results in: (1) a revenue loss to the UConn Health Center; and (2)

¹The fringe benefit costs for most state employees are budgeted centrally in accounts administered by the Comptroller. The estimated active employee fringe benefit cost associated with most personnel changes is 41.82% of payroll in FY 27.

potential savings to the state employee health plan and municipalities enrolled in the state Partnership plans associated with lower claim payments.
