

Question 17

Attachment B2

Provider	Service Type	Service Description	SFY 2020 Payments	SFY 2021 Projections
City of Hartford	Juvenile Review Board	Juvenile Review Boards are organized groups of community volunteers such as police, youth service bureaus, schools, and agency professionals that work to divert children and youth from the juvenile justice system. Children and youth between the age of 7 and 17 that are first time misdemeanor offenders or that qualify under the Families with Service Needs statutes are eligible for JRB services	$226,014	$226,014
Regional Youth Adult Social Action Partnership	Juvenile Review Board		$200,901	$200,901
Urban Community Alliance	Juvenile Review Board		$226,014	$226,014
CT Youth Service Association	Juvenile Review Board: Support & Enhancement	Utilizing the principles of Restorative Justice, this program builds relationships and empowers communities to take responsibility for the well-being of their members by providing funding and oversight to individual Juvenile Review Boards in the Contractor's geographic catchment area.	$356,243	$356,243
Waterbury Youth Services	Juvenile Review Board: Support & Enhancement		$305,975	$305,975
			$1,315,147	$1,315,147