

The Military Department Priorities

Military Department priority areas for core services

- Support and safeguard its dual federal and state mission, maintaining trained and equipped National Guard units for prompt mobilization when the need merits.
- Operate and maintain 34 facilities allowing soldiers and airmen the proper accommodations for training required to sustain readiness.
- Maintain statutory responsibility to the public by serving as protectors of Connecticut citizens and their property in time of war and manmade or natural disaster.