

The reason there's no competition is because [REDACTED] like you have granted these power company's "natural monopoly." It's a joke. How long have you been in office? How have you acted to have prevented what you're complaining about? The answer is NOT to bring in LARGER monopolies, it's to DEREGULATE. Back away and let these companies run themselves. If they suck, someone will come compete with the...but people like you won't allow that. RE regulation will make things worse, but you won't recognize it when it happens. You'll claim, once more, that YOU are capable Of recognizing the cure, and will promise to impart that cure...this country is [REDACTED]
