

No one in Connecticut should have to choose between participating in our democracy by casting a ballot on Election Day and protecting their health. I wish we had all received more notice of this particular listening session, so you could get more input from the public - I imagine that you have been hearing about this particular issue from constituents quite a bit over the last several months.

I urge the legislature to pass this bill.

Kathy Flaherty
Newington, CT 06111