

I support expanding voting rights so that voters can automatically vote by mail. We shouldn't have to submit requests for every primary, special election, or general election during these perilous times or at any other time. Voting by mail should be an absolute right

Thank you for your consideration.

Stephen Pollack