Part II: Statutorily-Based Sunset Questions

Questions in this part pertain to the statutorily-based sunset criteria. This includes the sunset criteria for determining public need (C.G.S. Sec. 2c-7) and the sunset criteria for determining whether a regulatory entity or program served the general public (C.G.S. Sec. 2c-8). (N/A means the criterion is not applicable to the entity under review due to the nature of its functions or characteristics (e.g., if the entity does not hire employees, affirmative action requirements do not appear to be applicable).

I. Would termination of the Liquor Control Commission significantly endanger the public health, safety or welfare? YES. Please explain.

The Liquor Control Commission has responsibilities that affect the public health, safety and welfare of Connecticut's citizens in regard to the highly regulated liquor industry. Their duties include holding formal administrative hearings and informal hearings (referred to as compliance meetings) regarding allegations of liquor permit holders such as sales to minors, sales to intoxicated persons, suitability of applicants, suitability of proposed locations, attempting to obtain a permit by fraud, and unlawful activity and/or unsanitary conditions on permit premises. As such, the termination of the LCC would jeopardize the state's ability to ensure compliance with the requirements of the Liquor Control Act.

2. Would the termination of the commission's primary activity significantly endanger public health, safety, or welfare? YES. Please explain.

The primary activity is to safeguard the health and safety of Connecticut citizens by regulating all person and firms involved in distributing, selling and dispensing alcoholic liquor in order to prevent sales to minors and intoxicated persons, as well as to maintain product integrity and to ensure that permit premises are safe and sanitary. It is therefore clear that the termination of the commission's primary activity would significantly endanger public health, safety and welfare.

3. Could the public be adequately protected by another statute, office, or program, or by a less restrictive method of regulation such as absence of the Liquor Control Commission?

No. An alternative statute, office or program, or a less restrict method would not adequately protect the citizens of our state.

4. Does the commission have the effect of increasing the costs of goods or services to the public either directly or indirectly? Is there data to demonstrate this effect? If so, do the benefits to the public outweigh this additional cost?

No. The commission does not have the effect of increasing the costs of goods or services to the public.

- 5. Is the effectiveness of the commission's operation impeded by existing statutes, regulations or policies, including budgetary and personnel policies? If yes, please explain. No.
- 6. To what extent have qualified applicants been permitted to engage in any profession, occupation, trade or activity regulated by the Liquor Control Commission?

All applicants for a liquor permit are instructed to complete a formal application and are advised that an investigation into their background will commence. If it is determined by the Commission that an applicant is qualified to receive a permit, the request for said permit will in all cases be granted.

- 7. (N/A) To what extent has the commission complied with federal and state affirmative action requirements?
- 8. To what extent has the Liquor Control Commission recommended statutory changes which would benefit the public as opposed to the persons regulated? Please provide examples.

The Commission in consultation with the Commissioner has made numerous recommendations in recent years that would in the opinion of the Commission benefit the public (as opposed to the persons regulated). Recent examples include support of Governor Malloy's 2012 proposal, "An Act Concerning Competitive Alcoholic Liquor Pricing and Hours of Operation for Permittees." Additionally, the Commission has been a strong proponent of legislation that would ban the sale of distilled liquor by the bottle at on-premises consumption establishments. Passage of this law would benefit the public by working to reduce consumption of alcohol by intoxicated persons and/or minors.

9. To what extent has the commission encouraged public participation in the formulation of its regulations and policies?

The Commissioners are known to encourage the public to share their concerns and ideas for improved laws and/or regulations with the LCC, the Department, the Governor or their legislators.

10. Explain the manner in which the commission has processed and resolved public complaints concerning persons subject to commission regulation. Please provide data on any complaints and outcomes for each of the past three years.

The Commission encourages the public to inform the Division of any and all complaints of liquor permitted establishments. When received, all complaints are investigated, whether they be by namedcomplainant or anonymous. Once investigated, if a violation is alleged, it is brought before the Commission for adjudication. These actions are then a matter of public record. Additionally, if a member of the public seeks the disapproval or revocation of a permitted premise, they are informed of the process by which the commission may grant that request. Known as a Remonstrance, the Commission may conduct an administration hearing to determine if the evidence received warrants a refusal or revocation of the permit. Additional information on the Remonstrance procedure, as well as recent decisions is available to the public via this link:

http://www.ct.gov/dcp/cwp/view.asp?a=1623&Q=289042&PM=1&dcpNav=|

Part III: Standard RBA Questions

This part contains the eight standard results-based accountability questions adopted by the Appropriations Committee for all programs.

1. What is the quality of life result to which the Liquor Control Commission makes the most important contribution?

The Liquor Control Commission safeguards the health and safety of Connecticut citizens by regulating all persons and firms involved in distributing, selling and dispensing alcoholic liquor to prevent sales to minors and intoxicated person, maintain product integrity, and ensure that licensed premises are safe and sanitary.

2. How does the commission contribute to the result?

The LCC works to ensure compliance by permit holders with the provisions of the Liquor Control Act, thus safeguarding public health and safety. It does so by holding both formal administrative hearings and informal compliance meetings regarding allegations including the sale of alcohol to minors and/or intoxicated persons, suitability of the permit holder and/or the premise, and unlawful and/or unsanitary conditions on the premise.

3. Who are the commission's major customers?

The Commission's major customers are members of the public and liquor-permit holders.

4. What measures are used to tell if the Liquor Control Commission is delivering its services well? How is the commission doing on the most important of those measures? Provide data to support this assessment.

Collaboration with our partners and educating our customers are steps required in order to deliver our services well in our mission of safeguarding the public. To that end, Outreach and Training efforts are important and their frequency is measured. Please see Attachment B for a list of Outreach and Training appearances conducted over the last three calendar years.

5. What measures are used to tell if the commission's customers are better off? How is the commission doing on the most important of those measures? Provide data to support this assessment

At the top of the Commission's priority is to see a reduction in the instances of sales of alcohol to minors. In collaboration with our partners, the Division conducts frequent unannounced compliance checks on retail establishments to determine if they are complying with the law. Data is maintained on the number of establishments that pass & fail compliance checks. The goal being to reduce the percentage of establishments failing, thereby improving the quality of life for our customers---the public.
