

Title IX Options for Reporting & Support For Students

Confidential

- CAPS Therapists: 860-685-2910
 - Students who have experienced sexual violence can request to connect with Priya Senecal for mental health support, resources, or care.
- Health Center Clinical Providers: 860-685-2470
- Office of Religious & Spiritual Life Chaplains: 860-685-2278
- Future WesWell Associate Director for Sexual Violence Prevention

Non-Confidential

- Debbie Colucci, Title IX Coordinator: dcolucci@wesleyan.edu
- Public Safety: 860-685-2345
- Student Affairs Offices including: Class Deans, WesWell, the Resource Center, Student Involvement, ResLife Staff (Student & Professional Staff), etc.
- All other Wesleyan faculty and staff

For Faculty & Staff

Confidential

- Ombudsperson, Israela Brill-Cass: iabrillcass@fixerrr.com
- Employee Assistance Program: 800-828-6025

Non-Confidential

- Debbie Colucci, Deputy Title IX Officer: 860-685-2456
- Public Safety: 860-685-2345
- Human Resources: 860-685-2100

Confidential Community Resources for All

- Women & Families Center: English: 1-888-999-5545 / En Español: 1-888-568-8332
- New Horizons: English: 1-888-774-2900 / En Español: 1-844-831-9200
- National Sexual Assault Hotline: 1-800-656-4673
- National Domestic Violence Hotline: 1-800-799-7233

What's the Difference?

Confidential Campus Resources will not share details of your narrative, and have to submit a Confidential Crime Report (which is de-identified and only mentions the type of experience, not the details).

Non-Confidential Campus Resources are Responsible Employees at Wesleyan. If they receive disclosures, they are required to contact Debbie Colucci in the Office for Equity & Inclusion, sharing identifying information and the nature of the conversation; however, this does not start an investigation.

Want more information? Contact the Title IX Coordinator, Debbie Colucci (dcolucci@wesleyan.edu)