

I am writing to support more police accountability especially in regard to racial justice. Connecticut needs to feel that our police will not only protect each citizen no matter the color of their skin, but provide training and resources to avoid any dangerous policing methods like choke holds. We expect the police to treat all people fairly and maintain that someone is innocent until proven guilty.

Thank you,
Carol Reimers
Killingworth