

It seems as thou we are looking at not only a training issue but an initial screening issue. How many time prior to and during a new officers training are they screened for physiological Trates?. Further has the initial training syllabus been reviewed for adequacy.

Route cause! I fine it helpful to develop a cause and effect diagram.

To make my investigations visual!

By doing this you can focus on the important Few items as opposed to the many not important items.

David L Long, MSGT

USA RET.