

1. Lines 188 through 192 are unintelligible and certainly muddled. For example, one can read them many times and even then their meaning is not discernable.

2. Line 594: Appoint a mentally-disabled person to such a review committee? Minorities, surely, but this is entirely unreasonable.