

I do not support the police reform bill, If you want to change regulation on police, I think you should have had a survey sent to all Connecticut residents for their input.