

Such a shame our governor has decided that we have a policing problem instead of a few bad police. This should be dealt with in a regular session so all sides and the public can share their views