

My name is Michael Rion and I live in West Hartford, CT. I urge you to pass this police accountability bill as proposed. While the concerns raised about limiting qualified immunity can sound reasonable in the abstract, too many police officers have escaped accountability in the real world -we need to take away this "get out of jail free" card that can embolden officers to shoot first and ask questions later. Thank you.