

To whom it may concern, I am on the side of the police 100%. The law breakers do not stop when told to, instead try to harm the police any way they can. Our gutless lawmakers cave into these lawbreakers and side against the police for the votes they may get. Meanwhile our police suffer injuries and sometimes death. We already have laws to punish bad cops. Our police are there for the protection of innocent people and stop lawbreakers. Things are getting way out of hand against our police, we need more of them. Thank You,
