Declined Petitions in Accordance with Practice Book Sec. 23-24

Sec. 23-24. Preliminary Consideration of Judicial Authority

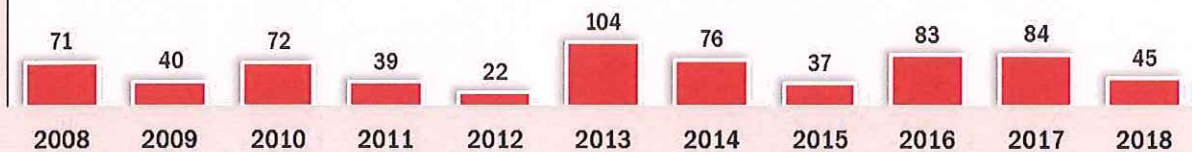

(a) The judicial authority shall promptly review any petition for a writ of habeas corpus to determine whether the writ should issue. The judicial authority shall issue the writ unless it appears that:

- (1) the court lacks jurisdiction;
- (2) the petition is wholly frivolous on its face; or
- (3) the relief sought is not available.

(b) The judicial authority shall notify the petitioner if it declines to issue the writ pursuant to this rule.
