Hello. I hope today finds you well. There is an inmate who has been trying to reach his office but has been unable to reach anyone. Her name is xx, she didn't say why she was trying to contact him. Most everyone else stated how nice he was when he walked through our unit a few months ago and how approachable he is. He came in shook our hands and introduced himself. He spoke with anyone who had questions. He contacted this facility on my behalf about mistreatment by a certain CO and it is being followed up on. I am extremely grateful for both you and him. Some people are not sure how to reach him it would be great if we had an email access directly with his office. The email was suggested by several inmates. I don't have access to anyone other than my small unit and most of the girls have very short incarnation time so they are not really utilizing him but I'm sure if they were here more long term like myself the would. Also it was stated by 2 people that more employees should be hired to assist him so he can better handle the amount of situations he encounters. Thank you so much.
