Here at York CI, we're locked down at least 10-15 maybe even 20 times a year when they claim they're short staffed. I remember a time we got locked down because one spoon was missing out of the chow hall and another time they were missing a huge sheet pan that they use to make the cake we get in the morning. A few times they said keys were missing and someone lost a radio. The maintenance guys lost things a few times but every time they realized they made a mistake and found whatever was missing right where it was supposed to be, they just overlooked it. Some guards hate when we go on five day locks but some of the other guards like it because they say the don't have to deal with us. I heard two guards at two different times with my own ears say if it was up to them we would always be on lockdown. The more we're on lock the less they have to do and not deal with inmates.
