

I am writing today because I believe removing religious exemption for vaccines is a violation of religious freedom. I am not anti vaccination but I do believe in freedom of religion and the separation of state and religion. It is also not the governments place to dictate how one applies their religion to their life or for the government to make health care decisions for and citizens regardless of religion.

Thank you,

Sandra