House: State Capitol, Room 109
860-240-0400

The Clerk of the Senate and Clerk of the House of Representatives are officers of the General Assembly and are elected on Opening Day of the odd-year Regular Session for a two-year term. The Assistant Clerks in both houses are also appointed on Opening Day for a two-year term.

The Clerks' Offices are charged with the publication of the Journals, Calendars, Bulletins, Bill Indices, and other documents of the General Assembly. The Connecticut General Statutes provide that each house shall have a full-time Permanent Assistant Clerk. The Permanent Assistant Clerk is responsible for the daily operation of the Clerk's Office. In addition to the Permanent Assistant Clerk, the staff in the Clerks' Offices includes a Journal Clerk, Calendar Clerk, Bill Clerk and an Office Assistant. During sessions, additional personnel are added as necessary.

A bill or resolution is not officially filed until it is presented in proper form to the Clerk in the introducer's Chamber and signed by the introducer. The needs of the Members of the General Assembly are tended to with respect to bill/resolution filing, indexing, proofreading and storing of the record of all legislation introduced in the Senate or House of Representatives. Five permanent staff personnel in each of the Clerk's Offices serve the legislative requests of the 36 Members of the Senate and the 151 Members of the House of Representatives on a range of legislative matters. Member services also include preparation of citations, co-sponsorship of legislation as well as answering questions on the legislative process in each of the respective Chambers.

The Journals, which are published in accordance with the Constitution and the Rules, contain all of the legislative actions taken on each session day including the text of all amendments acted upon. The roll call vote on each action in the Senate or House of Representatives appears in that Chamber's Journal immediately following the description of actions on the bill or amendment. The Calendar is a daily compilation of bills and resolutions awaiting action in the Senate or House of Representatives. The Rules require that the Journal and Calendar must be on the desks of all members each day.

During regular sessions, the Clerks' Offices are responsible for the operation of the Information and Bulletin rooms. The Clerks' Offices oversee the publication of the Legislative Bulletin. The Bulletin illustrates the schedule for legislative sessions, public hearings, committee meetings and other events containing notes of interest to legislators, staff and interested members of the public. The Bulletin is published daily when the General Assembly is in session.

During the interim, legislative information is provided by the Clerks' Offices.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH

860-240-8400
olr@cga.ct.gov

Room 5300, LOB
<http://www.cga.ct.gov/olr>

The nonpartisan Office of Legislative Research (OLR) helps the General Assembly make policy and serve the public by providing accurate, timely, and objective research, policy analysis, and assistance in the development of legislation. Our major services to members of the General Assembly are committee staffing, research, and legislative analyses. OLR also maintains Intra- and Internet websites.

Committee Staffing

OLR assigns one or more researchers to assist each standing and select committee except Appropriations. Researchers help to develop legislation, screen bills, brief legislators on issues, answer questions, and otherwise assist committees in their work. During the interim between sessions, OLR also works with special committees and task forces to develop recommendations and write reports.

Research

OLR provides research for, and answers questions from, individual legislators and legislative staff. We prepare over 700 written reports a year for legislators, in addition to answering questions orally and by e-mail and making oral presentations.

Legislators and staff can access all OLR reports through OLR's Intranet web page (<http://cgalites/olr>) or the General Assembly's Intranet home page. Copies are also available from the Legislative Library.

Legislative Analysis

Bill Analyses. A key part of OLR's charge is to write plain-language analyses of all nonappropriations bills that reach the floor of the General Assembly. Each analysis contains a summary of the bill's legal effect; a further explanation for those who want more details; and, where appropriate, background information on relevant court decisions, agency practices, and related legislation. We also highlight any technical problems with the bill draft. And we summarize each adopted amendment. Bill analyses are printed on the bill files and appear on the Internet and Intranet bill status pages.

Public Act Summaries. After the session, OLR publishes a book summarizing each public act the General Assembly passed. In addition, within a week of adjournment, we issue short summaries of the session's major public acts. And, between publication of the Major Public Acts and the Summary of Public Acts, we also issue the Acts Affecting ... reports. These are brief, informal abstracts of new laws that affect specific groups or topics, such as children, seniors, municipalities, and education.

Electronic OLR

Websites. OLR maintains both Internet (<http://www.cga.ct.gov/olr>) and Intranet (<http://cgalites/olr>) websites. These sites, which are continually updated, contain a searchable database of all OLR reports, recently published reports, bill analyses and public act summaries, and other information and services from OLR.

Room 5400, LOB

The Legislative Library provides professional, nonpartisan assistance to General Assembly members and staff by identifying, acquiring and disseminating information resources which support the legislative process, by developing and maintaining relevant bibliographic tools, and by educating its users in the research process. Its Intranet home page (<http://cgalites/lib>) provides remote access to materials within its collection and to outside resources. The Library also offers limited assistance to government agencies, other libraries, and members of the public.

The collection includes current and historical Connecticut legislative materials; statutes of the six New England states, New York and New Jersey; federal laws and regulations; case law from all Connecticut courts and the United States Supreme Court; books and periodicals covering numerous subject areas; legislative task force reports; directories and reference tools. On-line access and training in legal and global databases is available in consultation with library staff. One of the Library's most valuable resources is its unique collection of research reports written by the Office of Legislative Research analysts, indexed for computer retrieval as well as available in hard copy in the library's subject files.

The Legislative Library is open daily from 8:30 - 5:00 with extended hours when either House or Senate is in session.

Room 5200, LOB
<http://www.cga.ct.gov/ofa>

The Office of Fiscal Analysis (OFA) provides the General Assembly with independent, accurate, and timely fiscal information to assist members in making budgetary decisions and to inform members of the fiscal impact of legislation under consideration.

OFA acts as the fiscal support staff to the committees on Finance, Revenue and Bonding and Appropriations. The staff reviews and does analyses of the Governor's recommended budget, including revenues, appropriations, bond authorizations and various federal aid programs available to Connecticut.

In addition to analyzing the budget, OFA also assists the two committees in analyzing the fiscal impact of all individual money bills which may be referred to them. OFA prepares fiscal notes or fiscal impact statements that are appended to the file copy of all favorably reported bills; fiscal notes are also prepared on amendments.

The office provides information to individual legislators in areas concerning taxes, expenditures and other budgetary matters. A detailed report on the adopted State budget is prepared at the end of each session.

During the interim, OFA assists in legislative overview of State operations to assure that legislative intent is carried out during execution of the budget by the various agencies. This activity includes monitoring agency programs and expenditures and conducting in-depth analyses of selected programs. Also, State revenues are analyzed on a continual basis, and research is conducted on other finance matters such as bonding, investments, tax policy, and the total federal-state-local fiscal system.

Periodic reports are prepared on the state's current fiscal condition, and long-range budget projections are developed for future years. Other publications by the office include: Connecticut Tax Expenditure Report, Connecticut Budget and Economic Data, and the annual Fiscal Note Compilation. The office also analyzes fiscal notes on proposed regulations submitted by executive agencies to the legislative Regulation Review Committee for approval.

Room 506, Capitol

The Legislative Program Review and Investigations Committee serves as the General Assembly's "watchdog" over the executive branch of government. The committee is a bipartisan committee of twelve members. Pursuant to statute, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of the House, and Senate and House Minority Leaders each appoint three members to the committee. (C.G.S. Sec. 2-53g).

By law, the committee is charged with the duty of examining " . . . state government programs and their administration to ascertain whether such programs are effective, continue to serve their intended purposes, are conducted in an efficient and effective manner, or require modification or elimination."

The committee may also cite " . . . inadequate operating or administrative system controls or procedures, inaccuracies, waste, extravagance, unauthorized or unintended activities or programs or other deficiencies . . . " in its reports on agencies or programs reviewed by the committee.

The committee may conduct investigations on "any matter" when requested by a joint resolution of the General Assembly or, when the legislature is not in session, by a joint standing committee, or at its own initiative, subject to the approval of the Joint Committee on Legislative Management.

The Executive Reorganization Act of 1977 expanded the committee's mandate to include performance reviews of nearly 100 boards, councils, committees and commissions scheduled for termination under the sunset provisions of the Act. The first five-year sunset cycle was completed in 1984 and has been postponed since then.

BILL ROOM

Rooms 1400, 1410, LOB

The Bill Room, which is located on the first floor of the Legislative Office Building, operates during legislative session periods. Copies of bills and legislative documents may be obtained from the bill room staff.

Documents Available in the Bill Room

In addition to bills, the List of Bills, the Legislative Bulletin, daily journals, and daily calendars are also available to the public in the bill room. A copy of each of these documents is placed on each legislator's desk on each session day.

A List of Bills is adopted by each chamber on almost every session day during the early weeks of a regular session. Adoption of a list constitutes the first reading of each bill appearing on it. The daily lists should be retained for reference until a cumulative index has been printed.

The Legislative Bulletin is published daily throughout the session. It contains information on public hearings, committee meetings and other legislative activities.

The Senate and House Journals are the official constitutional records of actions taken by the two chambers of the General Assembly. They are published daily throughout the session, with a final comprehensive compilation printed for each house several months after the conclusion of each regular session.

The Senate and House Calendars are published daily and constitute the agenda of bills for the current and subsequent session days. A bill that has received final committee action appears on the calendar on the day after it has been officially read-in in the chamber. It is listed by introductory number, by calendar number and title (and also by file number once that has been assigned) on the first day. On the next following calendar, that listing will include one star and, on the subsequent calendar, the listing will have two stars. At that point, the bill is ready for action by the chamber.

LEGISLATIVE INFORMATION ROOM

860-240-0555

Vault 5, Capitol

The Legislative Information Room is in operation throughout each regular legislative session and for a few weeks after adjournment. Through use of the General Assembly's computerized bill-status system, the Legislative Information Room staff can provide an up-to-the-minute status report of any bill introduced into the Senate or House.

Information Services Available on Legislative Action

Computer terminals are available outside the Legislative Information Room in the Capitol basement and near the Bill Room on the LOB first floor to provide information on bill status, bills by subject and bills by introducer.

The information that appears on the computer terminal screen is listed in abbreviated form and in chronological order. If the last action listed is "Ref. to Committee," the bill has not been reported out of committee. If the last action is "Filed L.C.," the bill has been reported out by the committee and is in the Legislative Commissioners' Office for preparation of a favorable report and return to the house of origin to be read-in and placed upon the Calendar. If a committee has reported unfavorably on a bill, the computer terminal screen will read "Filed L.C., Unfavorable."

"Amendment Adopted, Ref. L.C.," means that the bill has been amended and returned to the Legislative Commissioners' Office for reprinting in the files and will return to the Calendar to be acted upon as amended.

"House Passed" and "Senate Passed" means the bill has passed and will be going to the other house for action. Bills are held one day for reconsideration unless the rules are suspended for immediate transmittal. The screen will indicate "R/S" in cases where the rules have been suspended for transmittal. The same code is used to indicate a bill has been acted upon under a suspension of the rules.

After a bill has passed both houses in identical form, it is returned to the Legislative Commissioners' Office to be engrossed. The engrossed copy is signed by one of the Legislative Commissioners and by the Clerks of both chambers, and then transmitted to the Secretary of the State who, in turn, transmits it to the Governor for her signature or veto. Each of these actions, if taken, is also recorded under a bill's history.

If the last action listed on the computer terminal screen indicates that the bill is still in committee, further information on the bill may be obtained from the committee clerk or secretary in the committee's office.

LEGISLATIVE INTERSHIP PROGRAM

In recognition of the importance of providing college students with opportunities that are not typically available in a traditional academic setting, the General Assembly sponsors a college student internship program. The program, which is coordinated by a bipartisan twelve-member committee of legislators, encourages a high level of personal contact and interaction between legislators and the student interns.

The basic purpose of the legislative internship program is to afford students an opportunity to participate in the legislative process firsthand while, at the same time, providing legislators with staff assistance. Interns spend a majority of their time doing legislative work and are exposed to the wide variety of experiences available in the General Assembly. The program also seeks to provide a sound theoretical understanding of State government by inclusion of a strong academic component.

Some of the legislative interns serve on a full-time basis while others serve part-time. Appointments are announced in December by the Legislative Internship Committee which selects the individual interns after interviewing each applicant for the program.

The Legislative Internship Committee assigns the interns to individual legislators with preference given to legislative leaders, committee chairs and ranking members. A workable and mutually beneficial relationship between legislator and intern is a major goal of the intern program. Every effort is made to assure a match satisfactory to both legislator and intern.

For more detailed information about the Legislative Internship Program, please access our website at <http://www.cga.ct.gov/isc>.

860-240-8653

Auditor, Robert G. Jaekle (Rep.)
Room 114, Capitol

The Auditors of Public Accounts are appointed by the General Assembly and are responsible to that body. The bipartisan nature of the office, including a Democratic and Republican auditor, make it possible for this office to function independently of partisan or special interest considerations.

The Auditors of Public Accounts are required by statute to audit, biennially, the accounts of each agency of state government, all institutions supported by the state, and all quasi-public bodies created by the General Assembly. The auditors not only provide this fiscal audit function, but also are authorized to examine the operations and performance of state agencies to determine their effectiveness in achieving legislative purposes.

In accordance with law, they must report any unauthorized, illegal, irregular or unsafe handling or expenditure of state funds to the Governor, the State Comptroller, the Clerk of each House of the General Assembly, the Legislative Program Review and Investigations Committee, and the Attorney General. Under the provisions of Section 4-61dd, known as the Whistle Blower Act, the auditors investigate all whistle blower complaints and matters of corruption, unethical practices, and violations of State laws or regulations and report their findings and recommendations to the Attorney General. At the request of the Attorney General or on their own initiative, they assist in any continuing investigation.

The Commission on Aging, a nonpartisan, research and public policy agency of the General Assembly, was created in 1993 by an act of the Connecticut Legislature. Under CGS §17b-420, the Commission is composed of 21 citizen volunteer members.

The Commission fills a unique role in state government by serving as an independent resource on aging-related issues for legislators, state agencies, the governor and others. Using a Results-Based Accountability model, the Commission focuses its efforts on the following “quality of life” desired results: all older adults are healthy, safe, achieve educational fulfillment, economically self-sufficient, and free from discrimination.

By law, the Commission gathers and maintains information regarding those results and develops strategies designed to improve progress on them. Meeting regularly, the members and staff also partner with state and local government agencies, the faith and business communities, providers, advocacy groups and others to advance these goals. The Commission analyzes demographic, economic and service delivery trends in aging, delivering objective research and generating reports to guide sound public policy. The Commission also conducts educational and outreach activities to raise awareness of critical issues for the older adult population of the state, as well as informational briefings for policymakers throughout the year.

The Commission leads public/private sector efforts to promote public policy reflecting best practices and national trends on multi-faceted aging issues including: health care, long-term care, transportation, financial security, housing, employment and many others. Specifically, the Commission leads the movement to bring about major paradigm shifts in how the state provides long-term care services and supports to hundreds of thousands of older adults and persons with disabilities of all ages. In this work, the Commission promotes choice and independence for people needing long-term care services and supports while remaining responsible to society as a whole.

The Commission reviews and comments on state departmental policies, procedures, structures and outcomes that affect older adults and persons with disabilities, providing accountability and objectivity.

The Commission takes a leadership role in forming, establishing and maintaining partnerships with diverse stakeholders, including the business community, non-profits and governmental entities. It serves as chair of the Connecticut Elder Action Network and co-chair and manager for the Long-Term Care Advisory Council. Commission staff also serve on a variety of other boards and task forces, including the Money Follows the Person Steering Committee, Low-Income Energy Advisory Board and the Medicaid Managed Care Council.

The Commission reports on its activities annually through a performance report card and a Results-Based Accountability report that indicates trends related to the quality of life results listed above and identifies strategies for, and barriers to, progress.

GENERAL INFORMATION

OFFICIALS AND THEIR DUTIES

THE SENATE

President of the Senate

The Lieutenant Governor is the President of the Senate by virtue of the office. The duties of the Lieutenant Governor include presiding over the Senate, recognizing members wishing to address the Senate, putting all questions to vote, deciding questions of order and referring bills to committees. In the event of a tie vote, the Lieutenant Governor may cast a vote to break the tie.

President Pro Tempore

The President Pro Tempore is elected by the Senate from its own members. The duties of the President Pro Tempore include presiding over the Senate in the absence of the President and appointing the Senate members of all committees, except when committee appointments are made by resolution.

Majority Leader

The Senate Majority Leader is appointed by the President Pro Tempore and serves as the majority party's leading spokesperson in floor debate.

Minority Leader

The Senate Minority Leader is elected by the minority party and serves as the minority party's leading spokesperson in floor debate.

Clerk and Assistant Clerk

The Clerk of the Senate is elected by the members. The Clerk appoints an assistant to help in carrying out the duties of the clerk. The Clerk reads all bills, resolutions and other documents presented to the Senate, keeps a record of the day's business, enters on the Calendar the bills and resolutions received from the House or from committees, prepares the Journal, keeps a record available to members of the action to date on all resolutions and bills and sees that copy for printing is prepared and that the daily Journal, Legislative Bulletin, Calendar and personal mail are distributed to the members. The Clerk also signs bills upon engrossment.

Messengers and Doorkeepers

The majority and minority leadership of the Senate appoint doorkeepers, messengers, and a sergeant-at-arms. They serve under the direction of the Clerk and are responsible for addressing the needs of the Senate with respect to messenger service and the distribution of documents.

THE HOUSE

Speaker

The Speaker is elected by the House from its own members. The duties of the Speaker include presiding over the House during its sessions, appointing House members of all committees not appointed by resolution, recognizing all persons wishing to address the House, putting all questions to vote, deciding questions of order and referring bills to committees.

Deputy Speakers

Deputy Speakers are appointed by the Speaker of the House and assume the duties of the Speaker in the absence of the Speaker.

Majority and Minority Leader

The House Majority Leader and House Minority Leader are elected by their respective caucuses and serve as their parties' leading spokespersons in floor debate.

Clerk and Assistant Clerk

The Clerk of the House is elected by the members and an Assistant Clerk is appointed by resolution. It is the duty of the Clerk to keep adequate records of the proceedings of the House, to read all bills, resolutions and other instruments presented for action, to keep the Journal and a daily Calendar including accurate records of all transactions between the House and Senate, to keep a record available to members of the action to date on all resolutions and bills, to supervise the distribution of the Journal, Legislative Bulletin, and Calendar, and to sign bills upon engrossment.

Messengers and Doorkeepers

The majority and minority leadership of the House appoint doorkeepers, messengers and a sergeant-at-arms. They serve under the direction of the Clerk and are responsible for handling the needs of the House with respect to messenger service and the distribution of documents.

COMMITTEES

There are eight classes of committees in the General Assembly: standing committees, statutory committees, select committees, joint special committees, senate special committees, house special committees, conference committees and special interim committees.

Standing Committees

Standing committees are those to which bills and resolutions are referred. The names and duties of these committees are designated in the rules. If joint rules are adopted, these committees are joint standing committees. If joint rules are not adopted, as was the case in the 1951 and 1955 sessions, each house appoints its separate committees. Senate members on such committees are appointed by the President Pro Tempore and House members by the Speaker. Under the rules, minority party members of the committees are nominated by the minority party leader of each house.

The joint rules prohibit a standing committee from meeting when either house of the General Assembly is meeting in floor session. Committee appointments are usually made on the opening day of a two-year term. The first representative and senator named to a committee by the Speaker and the President Pro Tempore, respectively, become the chairpersons. The rules require that the chairperson or co-chairpersons of each committee schedule an organizational meeting after appointment of the members. In all meetings of a joint committee, and at all public hearings, the Senate and House chairpersons mutually agree as to who shall preside. All questions of order and other proceedings and questions relating to evidence are determined by a majority vote. All matters reported on are first reported to the house in which they originate.

Statutory Committees

Statutory committees are permanent joint committees that exist by statute and are charged with specific tasks and responsibilities. There are four such committees: the Joint Committee on Legislative Management (Sections 2-71a to 2-71w, inclusive, of the general statutes); the Program Review and Investigations Committee (Sections 2-53d to 2-53k, inclusive, of the general statutes); the Regulation Review Committee (chapter 54 of the general statutes); and the Committee for Legislative Internships (Sections 2-81 to 2-82, inclusive, of the general statutes).

Select Committees

During the 2009-2010 term, there are three select joint standing committees on Aging, Children, and Veterans' Affairs. Any bills favorably reported by Aging, Children or Veterans' Affairs have to be referred to the appropriate joint standing committee

Joint Special Committees

These committees are appointed to perform a special task and are discharged when that task is completed. The number of members is usually determined by the resolution calling for their appointment. Generally, it is the practice that Senate members are appointed by the President Pro Tempore and House members are appointed by the Speaker. Examples of joint special committees are the committees to inform the Governor that the House and Senate are in joint session, and special investigating committees to function during the session.

Senate Special Committees

Senate special committees are generally of a temporary nature and arise either from the Senate rules or from specific resolution. Unless otherwise designated, the members are appointed by the President Pro Tempore. Committees in this group may include the committee on Senate appointments and the committee on canvass of vote for State senators.

House Special Committees

House special committees are also of a temporary nature and arise either from the House rules or from specific resolution. Unless otherwise designated, the members are appointed by the Speaker. Committees in this group include the committee on canvass of vote for State representatives and the committee on seating arrangements.

Committee of Conference

When the Senate and House pass differing versions of the same bill, a committee of conference is appointed to reconcile the differences and propose compromises which may make the matter acceptable to both houses. The rules provide that such committee shall consist of three members from each house, appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House, respectively. If the vote was not unanimous, at least one of the appointments from each house must be from the non-prevailing side of the vote in that house and at least one of the appointments from each chamber must be from that chamber's minority party membership.

Special Interim Committees

The General Assembly sometimes establishes special joint study committees to examine a particular topic during the interim period between regular sessions. In addition, all standing committees continue in operation and may study issues during interim periods.

ENACTMENT OF BILLS

Prior to the opening of the odd-year session and for a limited time thereafter as established in the joint rules, members and members-elect of the General Assembly may file proposed bills and resolutions in the house in which they serve. The State Constitution provides that in even-year sessions, individual legislators may introduce only those proposed bills and resolutions that are of a fiscal nature. Standing committees may introduce bills on any topic in any regular session of the General Assembly.

Proposed bills state briefly, usually in a single paragraph, the substance of the proposed legislation in informal, nonstatutory language. The text of the proposed bill is followed by a statement of purpose of not more than 150 words. Bills written in formal statutory language may be introduced only by a committee, with few exceptions. Proposed bills may be jointly sponsored by senators and representatives, and any member may co-sponsor a proposed bill originating in either house by requesting the Clerk, in writing, of the house in which the proposed bill is filed to add the name of such member as a sponsor. In the case of a proposed bill in possession of the Legislative Commissioners' Office, such request may be made in writing to the Legislative Commissioners' Office.

The member presents the proposed bill to the Clerk of the House or Senate who assigns it a number. First reading of a proposed bill or resolution is by title and reference to a committee or by acceptance by the house of a printed list, distributed to the members, of the bills and resolutions with their numbers, sponsors, and titles, and the committees to which they have been referred. It is then recorded in the Journal by number and title, with a brief statement of purpose. It is next sent to the other house for concurrent reference.

Each committee separates the proposed bills referred to it into subject categories and, after providing legislators with time to express their views on these proposed bills, may vote to have the Legislative Commissioners' Office fully draft any of these bills. Fully drafted bills that are based on proposed bills are called "committee bills." A committee may also vote to have the Legislative Commissioners' Office draft bills on topics that did not originate as proposed bills. Such bills are called "raised bills." Like proposed bills, committee bills and raised bills are also sent to both houses for a first reading, and then referred to their original committee for consideration.

Public Hearing

The staff of the committee to which the bill is assigned sends notice of the date and place of a public hearing to the member who introduced any proposed bill upon which the committee bill that is being heard is based. Upon request, such notices are also provided to other interested persons. Hearing notices must also be published in the Legislative Bulletin five calendar days in advance of the public hearing. In determining whether this five-day rule is met for a hearing notice, the first day of publication, the last day of publication, and any intervening weekend days and holidays are counted.

Committee Action

After the public hearing, the committee meets to decide upon its action on the bill. Notice of such meeting is published in the Legislative Bulletin and all meetings are open to the public. The committee may: (1) vote a "favorable" report of the bill, which indicates that a majority of the committee favors the bill and recommends its passage (called a "JF" to signify that it is a favorable vote by a joint committee); (2) vote a "favorable substitute" report of the bill with revised language from the language in the original raised or committee bill (called a "JFS"); (3) vote to reject, or to "box" the bill; (4) take no action on the bill, which has the same effect as boxing it, but does not entail a vote of the committee; (5) vote an "unfavorable" report, which indicates that a majority of the committee opposes the bill and recommends its rejection but, for whatever reason, decides that the entire General Assembly should have the opportunity to consider the bill, or (6) vote a "change of reference" or a "favorable change of reference" to another committee.

As the General Assembly seldom accepts or rejects a bill contrary to a committee's recommendation, it is important for any member interested in its passage or rejection to secure substantial backing and to present convincing arguments on the matter to the committee. The rules permit the members of a committee from each house to divide the committee into separate House and Senate committees for purposes of considering and voting on bills to their respective houses.

The Bill in the House and Senate

Upon a favorable vote, the bill must be first reviewed by the Legislative Commissioners' Office and approved by a Legislative Commissioner before being sent to the house in which it was introduced. The Legislative Commissioners then deliver the bill to the Clerk of the House or Senate, as the case may be, who, under the order of business, "Reports of Committees," presents the report to the particular house. Without discussion, the bill is read the second time (by title only) and laid on the table. Each favorably reported bill is printed and receives a file number distinct from the original bill number. Each file consists of the bill as reported by the committee and drafted by the Legislative Commissioners' Office, a fiscal note prepared by the Office of Fiscal Analysis, and an analysis of the bill prepared by the Office of Legislative Research. No further action on the bill may be taken until the second day succeeding the day on which it is placed in the files on the desk of each member. Bills are placed on the Calendar by title, file number, and bill number in the order in which they are received from committees. Bills that are ready for action (that is, which have been in the files of the members for two days) are marked with an "XX" on the Calendar. The third and final reading of the bill is ordinarily by title only, but any member may request that it be read in full. Following the reading of the bill, a member of the committee that reported it explains the committee's reasons for so doing, and a general debate on the bill is in order. There may be a consent calendar consisting of bills, designated by the majority and minority leaders of the house in which they are pending, which are placed and passed on motion without debate. Any member may move for removal of a bill from the consent calendar and, when so removed, the bill is considered on the regular calendar.

Amendments are prepared by the Legislative Commissioners' Office at the request of a member and may be offered any time prior to final passage of a bill. If a bill is amended on third reading other than to correct clerical errors or mistakes as to forms or dates, the amendment must be approved by a Legislative Commissioner and the bill, as amended, must be reprinted and returned in its new form to the members' files before it can be passed.

Passage and Engrossment

After a bill has passed on the third reading, it is held for one day for a motion to reconsider, which can only be made by a member on the prevailing side of the vote. If not reconsidered, the bill is transmitted to the other house. If the other house amends the bill, it comes back to the first house for concurrence in the amendments. If the amendments are not concurred in, a conference committee may be appointed to resolve the differences. When passed by both houses, the bill is delivered to the Legislative Commissioners' Office for engrossing (preparation of the text into official format) and supervision of printing in its final form. It is then certified by a Legislative Commissioner signed by the Clerk of the Senate and the Clerk of the House, and transmitted by the Clerks to the Secretary of the State who presents it to the Governor for approval or veto.

Action by the Governor

If the Governor receives the bill while the legislature is in session, the Governor has five calendar days, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, to sign it or return it to the house in which it originated with a statement of objections. In the latter case, the bill may be reconsidered and, if passed by at least two-thirds of the members of each house of the General Assembly, it becomes law. If the Governor does not sign or veto the bill within five calendar days after presentment, Sundays and holidays excepted, the bill automatically becomes law unless the General Assembly has adjourned the regular or special session. If the regular or special session has adjourned, the bill becomes law unless the Governor, within fifteen calendar days after presentment, transmits it to the Secretary of the State with objections. In such case, the bill does not become law unless it is reconsidered and repassed by the General Assembly by at least two-thirds of the members of each house of the General Assembly at the time of its reconvening for its constitutionally mandated session to reconsider such vetoes.

Veto Session

If the Governor vetoes any bill or bills after the General Assembly has adjourned, the Secretary of the State must reconvene the General Assembly on the second Monday after the last day on which the Governor is either authorized to transmit or has transmitted every bill to the Secretary with objections (Section 15 of Article IV of the State Constitution), except if such Monday falls on a legal holiday, the General Assembly is reconvened on the next following day. The reconvened session is for the sole purpose of reconsidering and, if the General Assembly so desires, repassing such bills. The General Assembly must adjourn sine die not later than three days following its reconvening.

TRANSCRIPTS OF PROCEEDINGS

A verbatim typewritten record is prepared of all debate on the floor of the Senate and House and of all testimony at public hearings. Transcripts of floor debate and public hearing testimony from previous sessions are available in the legislative reference section of the State Library and on the Connecticut General Assembly's Internet and Intranet web sites.

CONSTITUTIONAL, STATUTORY AND REGULATORY PROVISIONS

The State Constitution contains a number of provisions that pertain to the General Assembly. Among the most important of them are those that state the length and dates of legislator terms and of legislative sessions. The Constitution also provides that special sessions may be called by the Governor on special emergencies or by a majority of the members of the General Assembly as the members deem necessary. Other provisions specify the minimum and maximum number of members in the Senate and House and the procedure for reapportionment that occurs after every decennial census. The Constitution also prohibits a General Assembly from approving a salary increase for its members during the term of office for which they were elected. Finally, the Constitution prohibits members of the General Assembly from holding or accepting any appointive position or office in the State's executive or judicial branch of government during the term of office for which they have been elected. Members are immune from cases of civil process during the legislative session, and speech and debate in each house is privileged.

Most of the statutory provisions concerning the General Assembly appear in chapters 16 to 28a, inclusive, of the general statutes.

The joint rules, which are adopted for the two-year term on the opening day of the odd-year session, provide details on bill, committee and floor procedures. In addition, each chamber adopts its own rules, which take precedence over the joint rules in the event of conflict. The Senate and House rules contain provisions stating that Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure govern the Senate or House whenever applicable and whenever not inconsistent with the joint rules or with the rules of the Senate or House.

SENATE AND HOUSE FLOOR PROCEDURE

When speaking in a body that operates under rules of parliamentary procedure, the consistent use of the same terms conveys but a single meaning to the listener and thus serves to resolve any doubts in the listener's mind as to what the speaker means. Failure to use the accepted phraseology may create confusion and lead to questions from the floor as to the speaker's intent. The language and style illustrated below are the accepted form in the Connecticut General Assembly, and it is recommended that this language be used whenever possible.

Language of Motions - Senate

Members who wish to offer a motion from the floor in connection with the progress of legislation should, after being recognized by the presiding officer and under the proper order of business, use the following language on motions indicated below: (Please note that it is not necessary to second any motion except appeals of rulings from the President.)

Senate Bills

The motions listed above are the same for House action on Senate bills except that it is important to add the phrase "in concurrence with the Senate" at the end of each motion when that is the intent of the individual moving the bill.

RULES ON MAILING PRIVILEGES

The funding, regulation and supervision of State mailing privileges by members and employees of the General Assembly are the responsibility of the Joint Committee on Legislative Management. In carrying out said responsibilities, the Joint Committee on Legislative Management has promulgated the following rules for the use of the State mails by legislators:

1. Except as provided below, legislators may utilize the State mail service during their term of office for the purpose of carrying out the duties and responsibilities of that office. For legislators other than the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, Speaker of the House, and the Majority Leader and Minority Leader of each house, such duties and responsibilities shall include but not necessarily be limited to:

a) replies to direct inquiries from constituents in the legislator's personal district;

c) unsolicited communications with constituents of the legislator's personal district under the conditions set out in #2, #3, #4 and #5 (below);

d) communications with legislators from other States, with members of Congress, and with federal, State and local governmental agencies and political subdivisions relative to official business; and

e) intrastate and interstate communications, and communications within the legislator's personal district, under the conditions set out in #2, #3, #4 and #5 (below), for the purpose of gathering information on present or prospective State or federal legislation.

2. Under Section 2-15a of the Connecticut General Statutes, each legislator is entitled to send out one district-wide mailing per year. One such mailing may be sent out in each calendar year as a one-page (up to 17 inches by 11 inches or 187 square inches) four color newsletter, with the postage cost to be at the most economic bulk rate available. These guidelines do not prohibit any caucus from including alternative criteria in their district-wide newsletter specifications; however, any criteria above and beyond those included in the standards cited above must be paid for out of caucus funds.

3. Except as provided in #2 (above) and #4 (below), no legislator, other than the President Pro Tempore, Majority Leader and Minority Leader of the Senate, and the Speaker, Majority Leader and Minority Leader of the House, shall use the State mailing privileges for the purpose of mailing more than one thousand (1,000) first-class items in a week in the case of a senator or more than five hundred (500) first-class items in a week in the case of a representative.

4. A legislator, other than the President Pro Tempore, Majority Leader or Minority Leader of the Senate, or the Speaker, Majority Leader or Minority Leader of the House, who wishes to use the State mailing privileges to send more than one thousand (1,000) pieces of a single mailing in a week in the case of a senator or more than five hundred (500) pieces of a single mailing in a week in the case of a representative shall be permitted to do so under the following conditions:

a) the total number of excess pieces of first-class mail for any or all mailings in a single calendar year shall not exceed 9,728 in number in the case of a senator and 2,432 in number in the case of a representative. A legislator (other than those excluded above) who wishes to send more than the above-authorized excess pieces may elect, at the beginning of a calendar year, to use a bulk mail permit, provided legislators who elect to use such a permit shall not use it to send more than 12,500 excess pieces in a given calendar year in the case of a senator or 3,125 excess pieces in a given calendar in the case of a representative.

b) a legislator (other than those excluded in #1 above) may use the State mailing privileges for the purpose of sending more than the maximum number of excess items or the district-wide mailing authorized under this section, provided all costs associated with sending more than said maximum number of excess items or more than said district-wide mailing shall be paid from said legislator's caucus budget.

5. Legislators shall not use the State mailing privileges for the purposes of:

a) sending campaign letters or for the conducting of campaign business (campaign business shall be considered as any act which is part or product of an organized or systematic effort to obtain a majority or plurality of the votes to be cast in an election for public office);

b) polling or surveying individuals for opinions or views with the exception of (1) constituents within the legislator's own district; (2) surveys by the President Pro Tempore, Majority Leader and Minority Leader of the Senate, and the Speaker, Majority Leader and Minority Leader of the House;

c) sending State highway maps, travel guides or other such promotional materials produced by State government agencies;

d) sending letters of congratulation, felicitation or sympathy unless limited to specific individuals with outstanding, unusual or special circumstances; not to include new voter letters; or e) mass mailings to graduates, students, etc., or on the subjects of engagements, marriages, births or similar such matters, not to include new voter letters.

6. Legislators who are candidates for reelection shall not use the State mailing privileges during the period commencing on July sixteenth and ending on election day in even-numbered years for the purpose of sending an unsolicited mailing to an individual residing in their district.

Section 9-610(d)(1), Connecticut General Statutes. No incumbent holding office shall during the three months preceding an election in which he or she is a candidate for reelection or election to another office use public funds to mail or print flyers or other promotional materials intended to bring about the election or reelection of said person.

RULES ON CORRESPONDENCE AND MULTIPLE-COPY LETTERS

1. The Joint Committee on Legislative Management contracts with private secretarial service agencies to assist legislators in the preparation of correspondence that they wish to send in conjunction with the fulfillment of their official duties and responsibilities.

2. The official duties and responsibilities for which legislators may utilize the contractual secretarial services shall include but not necessarily be limited to:

No incumbent holding office shall, during the three months preceding an election in which he or she is a candidate for reelection or election to another office, use public funds to mail or print flyers or other promotional materials intended to bring about his or her election or reelection.

5. The office of the Joint Committee on Legislative Management shall keep and maintain specific records concerning the number of letters requested by each member of the General Assembly from the contractual letter-service firms under contract to said committee.

The request will first be forwarded to the member's own caucus leader/leaders for approval. Once approved by the member's leadership, the request will be sent on to the other caucus leaders for approval. Reimbursement shall be made if four of the six subcommittee members approve the request.

(2) Any committee may meet at the Capitol or in the legislative office building on any day, provided certification of a significant need for the meeting is made in writing by the Speaker of the House and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate or their designees.

(3) If, in any week, the designated meeting day of a committee falls on a holiday or on a day when the state capitol or legislative office building is officially closed, the committee may meet on another day, not so designated, within seven calendar days before or after such day, provided certification of the need for the meeting is made, in writing, by one of the following: The President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of the House, the majority leader of the Senate or the majority leader of the House and all reasonable efforts have been made to notify each member of the committee of the meeting.

In all meetings of joint committees, and at all public hearings held by such committees, the Senate and House chairpersons shall mutually agree as to who shall preside and in the absence of agreement the Senate chairperson and the House chairperson shall alternately preside. Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If the announcement cannot be made in one or both chambers because no regular session is being held on that day, an emergency meeting may still be held, provided certification of the need for the meeting is made, in writing, by one of the following: The President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of the House, the majority leader of the Senate or the majority leader of the House, and all reasonable efforts have been made to notify each member of the committee of the meeting.

(h) Agendas. An agenda, approved by both chairpersons, shall be prepared for each meeting and made available at least one day before the meeting, except that for a meeting held under subsection (g) of this rule, the agenda shall be prepared and made available prior to the meeting. Items not on the agenda may be considered upon a majority vote of the committee members present.

PUBLIC HEARINGS

6. (a) Scheduling.

(1) A committee may hold subject matter public hearings on any subject and on specified proposed bills, proposed drafts and proposed resolutions, and on committee and raised bills and resolutions, during sessions, except that subject matter public hearings on proposed bills, proposed drafts and proposed resolutions shall be held not later than twenty-one calendar days in 2009 and fourteen calendar days in 2010 before the committee's reporting out date designated in the schedule shown in Rule 15.

THE JOINT RULES

(2) Public hearings shall be scheduled for the convenience of the public and in accordance with the schedule for Group A and Group B committee meetings as provided in Rule 5.

(3) In the event of inclement weather on the day on which a committee has scheduled a public hearing:

(A) If the State Capitol and Legislative Office Building have been officially closed due to inclement weather:

(i) If the hearing has been convened prior to the official closing, the committee may continue the hearing or may recess the hearing as provided in subsection (c)(5) of this rule.

(ii) If the hearing has not been convened prior to the official closing, the hearing shall be deemed cancelled and shall be rescheduled pursuant to subsection (a)(3)(D) of this rule.

(B) If the State Capitol and Legislative Office Building have not been officially closed:

(i) If the hearing has been convened, the committee may recess the hearing as provided in subsection (c)(5) of this rule.

(ii) If the hearing has not yet been convened, the chairpersons of the committee may cancel the hearing if, in their opinion, the seriousness of the weather conditions is likely to reduce substantially the attendance at the hearing by members of the public or members of the committee.

(C) If the State Capitol and Legislative Office Building have not been officially closed, the committee clerk shall give notice of cancellation to the clerk of each chamber and shall post notice of the cancellation in a conspicuous place in or near the committee office, at the location of the scheduled hearing and on the General Assembly web site.

(D) The chairpersons shall reschedule a cancelled hearing on the earliest feasible date that is on a day specified for that committee in Rule 5(a) or 5(b) or on any other day with the approval of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the Speaker of the House, the majority leader of the Senate or the majority leader of the House. The committee clerk shall give notice of the rescheduled hearing to the clerk of each chamber and, when practicable, to the Legislative Bulletin clerk for inclusion in the next Legislative Bulletin and shall post notice of the rescheduled hearing in a conspicuous place in or near that committee office and on the General Assembly web site. The notice of the rescheduled hearing shall include the date, time, place and subject matter of the rescheduled hearing, together with a list of the numbers and titles of each bill and resolution to be considered, which subject matter and list shall be identical to the subject matter and list in the notice of the original hearing. The notice of the rescheduled hearing is not subject to subsection

(b) of this rule if the notice of the original hearing complied with said subsection (b).

(4) Committees may group bills and resolutions by subject matter and schedule hearings so that similar bills and resolutions are heard at the same time.

(b) Notice Requirements. During the periods when the General Assembly is in session, notice of the date, time, place and subject matter of each hearing, together with a list of the numbers and titles of each bill and resolution to be considered shall be published in the Legislative Bulletin at least five calendar days in advance of the hearing. In no event shall a bill or resolution be listed for a hearing unless copies of the bill or resolution have been made in accordance with section 2-23 of the general statutes, and the original bill or resolution has been returned from the printer and is in the possession of the committee.

For the purpose of meeting the hearing requirements under this rule, the day of publication in the Legislative Bulletin during the time the General Assembly is in session and the day of the hearing shall both be counted as full days.

(1) Convening and Procedures. A chairperson or a vice chairperson shall convene all hearings. If a hearing is not so convened within fifteen minutes following its scheduled starting time, any member of the committee may convene that hearing. The time of commencement of the public hearing shall be designated in the published notice. The order of testimony of the witnesses and the length of time that each witness may testify shall be determined by the presiding chairperson who shall give due regard for the convenience of the public. Members of the public who wish to testify at a public hearing may place their names on a list, which shall be made available at a time and place to be determined by the chairpersons. Members of the public shall either (A) place their own name on the list, if they wish to testify, or (B) place the name of one other person on the list who will testify. Members of the public placing the name of another person on the list shall also place their own name on the list next to the name of the person who will testify. The placement of another person's name on the list by a person who receives a fee solely for that service shall be ineffective and the person so named shall not be permitted to testify.

(2) Testimony by Public Officials. A committee may permit legislators who are not members of the committee, representatives of state agencies, and municipal chief elected officials testifying in their official capacity to testify during but not beyond the first hour of a public hearing. The public portion of the hearing shall be uninterrupted by testimony from a legislator, a representative of a state agency or a municipal chief elected official. If any legislators, representatives of state agencies or municipal chief elected officials are unable to testify during the first hour, they may testify at the end of the hearing after all members of the public wishing to testify have been heard.

(3) Written Testimony. Legislators, representatives of state agencies, municipal chief elected officials and members of the public may submit to the committee written testimony on a bill or resolution or subject matter in person, by mail or facsimile transmission, or electronically at any time and the written testimony may be included by the committee in the transcript of the hearing. If the written testimony is not included in the transcript, it shall be attached to the transcript. Committee chairpersons should encourage a witness to submit a written statement and confine oral testimony to a summary of that statement, but the full written statement shall be included in or attached to the transcript of the hearing.

(4) Notifying Other Committees. Each bill or resolution referred by one committee to another with a favorable report shall be accompanied by a notation of the date or dates on which public hearings were held by the first committee. The chairpersons of any committee other than Appropriations or Finance, Revenue and Bonding to which any bill or resolution calling for an appropriation or a bond issue is referred shall notify the chairpersons of the committee on Appropriations or Finance, Revenue and Bonding of the date, time and place of the hearing thereon.

When the House members and Senate members of a committee vote to report separate versions of a bill or resolution and each chamber adopts its own version, both bills or resolutions may be referred by a joint resolution to a committee of conference, appointed as provided in Rule 22, with instructions to report a bill or resolution, as the case may be. If no bill or resolution is reported within three session days following the committee's appointment, the committee shall submit an interim report to both chambers and shall continue to report every second session day thereafter until a final decision is reached. If a bill or resolution is agreed upon by the committee it shall be submitted to the Legislative Commissioners' Office as a favorable report for processing as provided in Rule 13. A legislative commissioner shall transmit the bill or resolution with his or her approval to the clerk of the chamber which initiated the joint resolution for a committee of conference and the bill or resolution shall thereupon be tabled for the calendar and printing. The report of the committee may be accepted or rejected, but the bill or resolution may not be amended.

No bill or resolution shall appear on the calendar of either chamber unless it has received a joint favorable or a favorable report of the members of the committee of that chamber, except as provided in this rule or in Rule 19 or 20.

(g) Roll Call Requirement. Each bill and each resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution and each other substantive resolution appearing on the regular calendar shall be voted upon by a roll call vote.

REPRINTING AFTER AMENDMENT

18. Whenever a bill or resolution is substantively amended there shall be no action on passage of the bill or resolution until it has been re-examined by the legislative commissioners for the purposes set forth in Rule 13 and it has been reprinted as amended. The chamber in which the bill or resolution is pending shall not take final action thereon until the reprinted bill or resolution has been distributed to the members. This rule shall not apply to amendments offered solely for the purposes of correcting clerical defects or imperfections, such as but not limited to, grammatical or spelling errors or mistakes as to form or dates, or to make other changes which do not alter the substance of a bill or resolution. Reprinting of amended bills or resolutions shall not be required for bills or resolutions passed after May 30, 2009, for the 2009 session and May 1 for the 2010 session.

PETITION FOR COMMITTEE REPORT

19. Upon presentation to the clerk of either chamber of a petition signed in the original by not less than a majority of the members of either chamber requesting a joint standing committee to report a bill or resolution in its possession, the clerk shall immediately give notice to the committee of the filing of the petition. The petition may not be presented sooner than the day following the committee's deadline, designated in the schedule shown in Rule 15, to report the bill or resolution out of committee and not later than 5 p.m. on the seventh calendar day after that deadline. Within two regular session days thereafter the committee shall report the bill or resolution with or without its recommendations to the chamber from which the petition was received. If no recommendation is made, the bill or resolution shall be considered as having received an unfavorable report and the procedures in Rule 20 shall be followed. Each petition or page of the petition shall contain a statement of its purpose and may be circulated only by a member of the chamber whose clerk will receive the petition. If the committee members of one chamber vote to report a bill or resolution favorably, the petition so circulated and presented to the clerk may be signed only by the members of the other chamber.

Any bill or resolution so petitioned, except those carrying or requiring appropriations, shall not be referred to any other committee without first having been voted upon by the House or Senate. Those carrying or requiring appropriations shall be referred first to the joint standing committee on Appropriations. The Appropriations committee shall, within two session days after such reference, report such bill or resolution back to the chamber in which the petition originated with either a favorable or unfavorable report thereon and the bill or resolution shall then be voted upon. In the event of a conflict between the report of the original committee and that of the Appropriations committee, the vote shall be on the report of the Appropriations committee.

UNFAVORABLE REPORTS

20. All bills and resolutions reported unfavorably shall first be printed under the supervision of the legislative commissioners, without correction and without their approval, and shall be in the files and on the calendar as if favorably reported but shall appear on the calendar under the heading "Unfavorable Reports." If the unfavorable report is rejected by the chamber of origin, the bill or resolution shall be returned to the legislative commissioners for their approval and reprinting in final form, except that in the case of an unfavorable report of the committee on executive and legislative nominations, or an unfavorable report of the committee on judiciary of a judicial nomination, a nomination of a workers' compensation commissioner or a nomination of a member of the Board of Pardons and Paroles, the resolution shall not be returned to the legislative commissioners and may be acted upon immediately. If the bill or resolution is returned to the legislative commissioners after May 20, 2009 in the 2009 session or April 21, 2010 in the 2010 session, the legislative commissioners shall transmit the bill or resolution, with or without approval, to the clerk of the chamber from which it was received, not later than five calendar days after it is received. It shall then be in the files, with special marking on the calendar, as if favorably reported with a file number for two session days and starred for action on the session day next succeeding in the chamber of origin. If the unfavorable report is accepted by the chamber of origin, the bill or resolution shall be lost.

THE JOINT RULES

When an unfavorable report is rejected by the first chamber and the bill is passed or the resolution adopted by that chamber, it shall then be in the files and on the calendar of the other chamber, but shall appear on the calendar under the heading "Unfavorable Reports".

RECALL FROM OTHER CHAMBER FOR RECONSIDERATION

21. No resolution or motion to recall a bill, resolution or other matter from the other chamber shall be allowed for the purpose of reconsideration or amendment after the time has elapsed for the reconsideration of any vote thereon except when there has clearly been a mistake in such vote or an error in the language of the bill, resolution or other matter.

COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

22. (a) Appointment of Committee. When one chamber rejects an amendment adopted by the other chamber, the bill or resolution shall be returned to the other chamber for further action. If that chamber readopts the rejected amendment, the readoption constitutes a matter for a committee of conference, and a committee of conference shall be appointed by the Speaker and the President Pro Tempore. The committee of conference shall be comprised of three members from each chamber. If the vote has not been unanimous there shall be at least one member of the committee who was not on the prevailing side in such member's chamber, except that in all cases, at least one member in each chamber shall be a member of the minority party.

(b) Committee Reports. The committee may propose any changes within the scope of the bill or resolution, but any action, including changes, taken by the committee shall be by a majority vote of the members of each chamber on the committee. The committee report shall be made to both chambers at the same time. The committee report shall contain the following information: The bill or resolution number and title, the members of the committee, the action of the committee, indicating the adoption or rejection of each House or Senate amendment previously adopted, identified by schedule letter, which accompanied the bill or resolution, the adoption of a new amendment, if any, and the signature of the members of the committee accepting or rejecting the report. A member's refusal to sign shall be deemed a rejection. Any new amendment shall be prepared by the Legislative Commissioners' Office and shall be attached to and made a part of the report and shall be identified by a schedule letter of the chamber which created the disagreeing action.

(c) Action by Chambers. Each chamber shall vote to accept or reject the report. A vote by either chamber to accept the report of the committee shall be final action by that chamber on the bill or resolution. If both chambers vote to accept the report of the committee, the bill is passed or the resolution is adopted as of the time the last chamber votes to accept the report. If either chamber rejects the report of the committee, the bill or resolution is defeated and the second chamber shall not be required to consider the committee report. The report of the committee may be accepted or rejected, but it may not be amended.

RETURN OF BILL FROM GOVERNOR OR LEGISLATIVE COMMISSIONERS

23. Whenever a bill has passed both chambers and has been transmitted to the Governor for approval, or to the legislative commissioners for engrossing, if either chamber desires its return for further consideration, it may, by resolution adopted by both chambers, appoint a joint committee of one senator and two representatives to be sent to the Governor or the commissioners to request them to return the bill. In the case of a bill transmitted to the Governor, if the Governor consents, and in the case of a bill transmitted to the legislative commissioners, the bill shall be returned first to that chamber in which the motion for its return originated, and the bill may then be altered or totally rejected by a concurrent vote of the two chambers; but, if not altered or rejected by concurrent vote, it shall be again transmitted to the Governor or the legislative commissioners, as the case may be, in the same form in which it was first presented to the Governor or legislative commissioners.

EXAMINATION OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

24. (a) Examination and Correction. All bills, and all resolutions proposing amendments to the constitution, when finally passed, shall be examined immediately by the legislative commissioners. If the legislative commissioners find that any correction should be made in the text, they shall report it to the committee on legislative management. If the committee believes that no correction should be made, it shall so inform the legislative commissioners. If the committee believes a correction should be made, it shall so inform the legislative commissioners who shall report the bill or resolution to the chamber which last took action upon it, with the proposed correction in the form of an amendment, within five calendar days, Sundays and holidays excepted, after its passage.

(b) Consideration of Proposed Correction. The report shall be placed at the head of the calendar, and shall take precedence of all other business on the calendar; and the only question on the report shall be, "Shall the proposed amendment be adopted?" If the proposed amendment is adopted by both chambers, the bill or resolution shall stand as amended. If the proposed amendment is rejected by either chamber, the bill or resolution shall not be transmitted to the other chamber, but shall stand as originally passed. If, in the consequence of the adjournment of the General Assembly subject to reconvening for the consideration of vetoed bills or for any other reason, any bill or resolution which has been passed by both chambers fails to be amended as recommended by the commissioners, the bill or resolution shall stand as originally passed.

ENGROSSING OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

25. All bills, all resolutions proposing amendments to the constitution and all resolutions memorializing Congress when finally passed shall be engrossed under the direction of the legislative commissioners, and immediately thereafter shall be transmitted to the clerks. The legislative commissioners shall carefully compare all engrossed bills and resolutions with the bills and resolutions as finally passed, and a commissioner shall certify by his or her signature to the correctness of the engrossed copies. As soon as engrossed and certified, as herein provided, the bill or resolution and amendment shall be presented to the House and Senate clerks, who shall sign the engrossed and certified copies.

TRANSMITTAL TO GOVERNOR

26. (a) Transmittal of Copy. On the passage of a bill by both chambers, the clerk of the chamber last taking action thereon shall forthwith cause a copy to be sent to the Governor.

(b) Engrossed Bills and Resolutions. Each bill and resolution, with the engrossed copy, shall be transmitted by the clerks of the House and Senate to the Secretary of the State as soon as it has been signed, as herein provided, and not later than the twelfth day after the expiration of the time allowed for reconsideration under the rules of the General Assembly, Sundays and legal holidays excepted; and the Secretary of the State shall forthwith present the engrossed copy of each bill to the Governor for approval.

(c) Records of Transmittal. The Secretary of the State shall give the clerks a receipt for each bill or resolution, and shall notify them of the date and hour at which each bill was presented to the Governor. The Secretary of the State shall give the Governor a receipt showing the date and hour at which the Governor approved it or returned it to the Secretary of the State with a statement of his or her objections and shall notify the clerks of the dates and hours. The clerks shall record the dates and hours of presentation and approval or return in the journals of the House and Senate.

(d) Immediate Transmittal. The chamber last taking action on a bill, before engrossing, may order immediate transmittal of the bill to the Governor, in which case the clerk of that chamber shall forthwith present the bill to the Governor, taking a duplicate receipt therefor showing the date and hour at which the bill was deposited in the executive office, one of which receipts the clerk shall deliver to the Secretary of the State. Except as provided in this subsection, a bill shall be transmitted to the Governor only after engrossing.

29. These rules shall not be altered, amended or suspended except by the vote of at least two-thirds of the members present in each chamber.
