

ARTICLE SUMMARY:

HIV/AIDS Prevention: a Model for Education the Inpatient Psychiatric Population

Tate et al

9/99

- Staff at psychosocial program in Virginia's Eastern State Hospital wrote model
- Includes great deal of statistics on risk of HIV/AIDS for psychiatric patients
- Discusses problems psychiatric patients might have with traditional educational models due to low functioning
- Designed module that uses repetition, role playing
- Includes info on sexual harassment, rape and sexual abuse
- Is "sex positive"
- Claims that they were not aware of any increase in sexually inappropriate behaviors after modules started up.