

WHITING FORENSIC HOSPITAL
OPERATIONAL PROCEDURE MANUAL

SECTION III:	STRUCTURES WITH FUNCTIONS
CHAPTER 12.c:	Rehabilitative Therapies
PROCEDURE 12.c.1:	Rehabilitation Therapy Services
Governing Body Approval:	5/1/18
REVISED:

PURPOSE: The provision of Rehabilitation Services offers patients an opportunity to participate in purposeful, goal-oriented activity. Services are provided to patients 18 years of age and older, with all levels of adaptive functioning to help attain their maximum level of functioning in their community.

PROCEDURE:

1. The Department of Rehabilitation Services is an integrated system of patient-centered services provided by the following specializations.
  - a. Occupational Therapy
  - b. Vocational Rehabilitation
  - c. Academic Education/Special Education
  - d. Chaplaincy
  - e. Music Therapy
  - f. Recreation Therapy
  - g. Art Therapy
  - h. Hairstylist
  - i. Substance Abuse Counseling
2. Delivery of Services:
  - a. Assessment and Evaluation of Patients
  - b. Treatment Planning
  - c. Treatment Team Participation
  - d. Treatment Intervention
  - e. Documentation of Services
  - f. Discharge Planning
  - g. Program Evaluation, Quality Improvement
  - h. Education